INSTRUCTIONS TO MARKERS

1. Please mark according to the provincial examination guideline.
2. Consider all realistic / relevant answers.
3. Do not expand the memorandum with your own answers as this is a common provincial task and should assist in fair and valid assessment across the province.
4. Adhere to the memorandum throughout the marking process as the questions are content specific and answers should reflect the content taught and assessed.
5. Mark accurately and always check all calculations and transfer of marks.
6. At least 10% of all answer scripts should be remarked by the HOD / senior teacher as part of the post-moderation process.
7. Remember we are working with learners' futures, so let us be fair, valid and just in assessing their work.

This marking guide consists of 7 pages.

Life Orientation Research June 2015 Question Paper:

Rethinking Children as Consumers Cyndy Hawkins, 2016-09-13 Children are significant consumers of services such as health welfare educational institutions and the environment. Alongside this the marketization of childhood means that children are exposed to advertising and marketing through a wide range of media on a daily basis. Examining key debates on children's power status and citizenship issues it considers the wider implications of how consumerism impacts on children's health well being and life chances. This timely book explores childhood and consumerism through four key strands: children as consumers of services, children as consumers of space, the link between citizenship and consumption, the influences of the marketization of childhood. Rethinking Children as Consumers will be essential reading for students, researchers, practitioners and policy makers who are interested in the topic of consumerism across early childhood, childhood, youth and society.

Academic and Student Affairs in Collaboration Mitchell A. Levy, Bernard A. Polnariev, 2016-06-10 Academic and Student Affairs in Collaboration provides a comprehensive and evidenced based understanding of the partnerships necessary to achieve an institutional culture devoted to student success. Chapter authors explore how to design, implement and assess collaborative efforts between student and academic affairs in support of increased student success. This book provides best practices for fostering and enhancing campus dialogue, career development pathways, academic support services and other important initiatives to increase retention and learning outcomes, improve motivation and goal attainment and enhance institutional accountability. This book is a must read for scholars, faculty leaders and practitioners in Student Affairs and Higher Education interested in achieving student success at their universities and colleges.

Food Security and Child Malnutrition Areej Hassan, 2016-12-08 Food security and child malnutrition are at the forefront of our attention both nationally and internationally. The chapters contained in this compendium include a range of methodologies: literature review, cross sectional study, longitudinal study, case control and even a focus group, all of which examine this urgent issue, revealing new perspectives and facets of information. The international roster of contributors present a nuanced look at food security and child malnutrition with research into food security measures in many nations around the world. The book is broken into several parts covering: defining food security, food security, nutrition and growth and development, food security and mental and physical health, food security and child obesity, conclusion with an information study from The Children's Healthwatch on household hardships, public programs and their associations with the health and development of very young children. The range of topics and information presented here will be valuable for those involved with food security: advocacy, policymakers, researchers, social service professionals, working children and families and others.

Moral and Spiritual Leadership in an Age of Plural Moralities Hans Alma, Ina ter Avest, 2019-01-17 In crisis situations such as terror attacks or societal tensions caused by migration people tend to look for explicit moral and spiritual leadership and are often inclined to vote for so called strong leaders Is there a way to resist the temptation of the simplistic solutions that these strong leader offer and instead encourage constructive engagement with the complex demands of our times This volume utilises relational and dialogical perspectives to examine and address many of the issues surrounding the moral and spiritual guidance articulated in globalizing Western societies The essays in this collection focus on the concept of plural moralities understood as divergent visions on what is a good life both in an ethical aesthetical existential and spiritual sense They explore the political cultural context and consequences of plural moralities as well as discussing challenges possibilities risks and dangers from the perspective of two promising relational theories social constructionism and dialogical self theory The overarching argument is that it is possible to constructively put in nuanced moral and spiritual guidance into complex plural societies By choosing a clear theoretical focus on relational approaches to societal challenges this interdisciplinary book provides both a broad scope and a coherent argument It will be of great interest to scholars of social and political psychology leadership and organization religious studies and pedagogy Better Together: A Joined-Up

Psychological Approach to Health, Well-Being, and Rehabilitation Dónal G. Fortune, Elaine L. Kinsella, Orla M. Muldoon, 2016-09-07 Health and well being is best understood in terms of a combination of biological psychological and social factors But how social is the biopsychosocial model when applied to mental health and rehabilitation Psychology has traditionally viewed health as being determined by individual behavior An integrative psychological approach is required to draw understanding from sociology social psychology and politics to consider how wider systemic structural and contextual factors impact on health behavior and outcomes This e book is dedicated to examining collective and community approaches to well being and rehabilitation In particular the articles contained within this e book are seeking to understand how social integration social groups social identity and social capital influence health well being and rehabilitation outcomes
