Factors Affecting Physician Professional Satisfaction and Their Implications for Patient Care, Health Systems, and Health Policy Mark W. Friedberg, Peggy G. Chen, Kristin R. Van Busum, Frances M. Aunon, Chau Pham, John P. Caloyer, Soeren Mattke, Emma Pitchforth, Denise D. Quigley, Robert H. Brook, F. Jay Crosson, Michael Tutty, 2013-10-09 The American Medical Association asked RAND Health to characterize the factors that affect physician professional satisfaction RAND researchers sought to identify high priority determinants of professional satisfaction by gathering data from 30 physician practices in six states using a combination of surveys and semistructured interviews This report presents the results of the subsequent analysis

The Psychology of Gratitude Robert A. Emmons, Michael E. McCullough, 2004-02-26 Gratitude like other positive emotions has inspired many theological and philosophical writings but it has inspired very little vigorous empirical research In an effort to remedy this oversight this volume brings together prominent scientists from various disciplines to examine what has become known as the most neglected emotion The volume begins with the historical philosophical and theoretical foundations of gratitude then presents the current research perspectives from social personality and developmental psychology as well as from primatology anthropology and biology The volume also includes a comprehensive annotated bibliography of research on gratitude This work contributes a great deal to the growing positive psychology initiative and to the scientific investigation of positive human emotions It will be an invaluable resource for researchers and students in social personality and developmental clinical and health psychology as well as to sociologists and cultural anthropologists
