

Life Is Sweet Life Is Short

Life, what is life really about? what is are reason for living? we live to love, we love to live life is sweet, life is short so why do we love to live for hurt so why do we live to love for hurt
life is sweet, life is short no one knows when love will hurt we live to learn what loves about love, what is love really about?

love your life before its gone! ! ! ! ! ! ! ! ! ! !

Cold Mountain Poems Anjiang Hu, 2023-07-28 This book unveils the legendary life and the mystic poems of the iconic Chinese Tang poet Han Shan known by his pen name Cold Mountain and investigates the dissemination and reception of the Cold Mountain Poems (CMPs) attributed to him. Han Shan and the CMPs are amongst the most legendary literary landscapes and cultural memories in the history of world scholarly exchange. The maniac poet recluse hidden in the Cold Mountains, the delicate poetic realms of Confucianism, Buddhism, Zen, and Taoism contained in the Cold Mountain Poems, and the incredible pervasiveness of its text, travel, and canon construction worldwide, as well as the profound impact of CMPs on comparative literature, world literature, and Chinese studies, provide the perfect lens to learn about Chinese language, literature, culture, and society. This book is thus intended to investigate CMPs in a coherent global context. Considering the vertical studies of the Chinese literature polysystem, it highlights the horizontal influence of CMPs literarily or non-literarily. Furthermore, it addresses the making and developing of the Han Shan phenomenon and its implications for translation studies, travel writing, canon construction, and literary historiography. This book is for scholars, researchers, and students in literary history and East Asian Studies focusing on Chinese literature and culture and those interested in the history of poetry in general. Walter Kaufmann Stanley Corngold, 2020-11-03 The first complete account of the ideas and writings of a major figure in twentieth-century intellectual life. Walter Kaufmann (1921-1980) was a charismatic philosopher, critic, translator, and poet who fled Nazi Germany at the age of eighteen, emigrating alone to the United States. He was astonishingly prolific until his untimely death at age fifty-nine, writing some dozen major books, all marked by breathtaking erudition and a provocative essayistic style. He single-handedly rehabilitated Nietzsche's reputation after World War II and was enormously influential in introducing postwar American readers to existentialism. Until now, no book has examined his intellectual legacy. Stanley Corngold provides the first in-depth study of Kaufmann's thought, covering all his major works. He shows how Kaufmann speaks to many issues that concern us today, such as the good of philosophy, the effects of religion, the persistence of tragedy, and the crisis of the humanities in an age of technology. Few scholars in modern times can match Kaufmann's range of interests, from philosophy and literature to intellectual history and comparative religion, from psychology and photography to art and architecture. Corngold provides a heartfelt portrait of a man who, to an extraordinary extent, transfigured his personal experience in the pages of his books. This original study, both appreciative and critical, is the definitive intellectual life of one of the twentieth century's most engaging yet neglected thinkers. It will introduce Kaufmann to a new generation of readers and serves as a fitting tribute to a scholar's incomparable libido sciendi or lust for knowledge. Lyric Orientations Hannah Vandegrift Eldridge, 2016-11-08 In Lyric Orientations, Hannah Vandegrift Eldridge explores the power of lyric poetry to stir the social and emotional lives of human beings in the face of the ineffable nature of our mortality. She focuses on two German-speaking masters of lyric prose and poetry: Friedrich Hölderlin (1770-1843) and Rainer Maria Rilke (1875-1926). While Hölderlin's

Idlerlin and Rilke are stylistically very different each believes in the power of poetic language to orient us as social beings in contexts that otherwise can be alienating They likewise share the conviction that such alienation cannot be overcome once and for all in any universal event Both argue that to deny the uncertainty created by the absence of any such event or to deny the alienation itself is likewise to deny the particularly human condition of uncertainty and mortality By drawing on the work of Stanley Cavell who explores how language in all its formal aspects actually enables us to engage meaningfully with the world Eldridge challenges poststructuralist scholarship which stresses the limitations even the failure of language in the face of reality Eldridge provides detailed readings of H Iderlin and Rilke and positions them in a broader narrative of modernity that helps make sense of their difficult and occasionally contradictory self characterizations Her account of the orienting and engaging capabilities of language reconciles the extraordinarily ambitious claims that H Iderlin and Rilke make for poetry that it can create political communities that it can change how humans relate to death and that it can unite the sensual and intellectual components of human subjectivity and the often difficult fragmented or hermetic nature of their individual poems

Naït-Zerrad, 2012 This book approaches a central concern of oral literature studies worldwide with a special focus on Africa how to deal with oral genres in a world where new technologies have become available to more and more people As the book asserts what is new is that the spotlight is directed towards old and new interlocutors who cooperate in the making of technologized oral genres in an increasingly technologized world Their interactions affect the performance as well as research their roles and positions raise methodological and ethical questions particularly when local national identities and commercial interests are at stake Series African Studies Afrikanische Studien Vol 45 A Brighter Morn Darby Southall, 1993-01-01 This book is based on the papers that were presented at the First International Urban Anthropology Conference which was opened in Beijing on December 28 1989 It contains twenty two papers and six introductory contributions dealing with the following subjects Comparative Urbanism Socialist and Asian Cities Chinese Urbanization Chinese Urban Ethnicity Chinese Urban Culture and Life Cycle These papers are written by Chinese and non Chinese authors The conference of 1989 1990 marked the beginning of urban anthropology in China Before this the objects of ethnological sociological and anthropological research in China were rural rather than urban Besides the attention of scholars was mostly directed towards the ethnic minorities in China In the late 1970's however contacts with Western anthropologists helped in redirecting part of Chinese anthropology towards the study of urban conglomerations The congress of 1989 90 marked the acceptance of this new approach in China Yannis Ritsos, Selected Poems Giannēs Ritsos, 1974 Best "New" African

Poets 2018 Anthology Rinos Mwanaka, Nsah Mala, 2018-12-29 Best New African Poets 2018 Anthology follows volumes in 2017 2016 and 2015 In this fourth volume of these continent wide anthologies of African poetry we have work from 154 African poets from over 30 African countries and the African Diasporas There are poems in English French Portuguese Sepedi Shona Yoruba and Asante Twi languages In 2018 there was a notable increase in the number of entries with memorable novelties regarding poetic experimentation some of the poets have daringly sliced up words playing around with the spatial and structural patterns of their texts on paper This may be described as both textual and visual poetry Reading the poems becomes a journey with many paths where the reader walks according to poetic rhythms and the hesitating breaks of action verbs and enjambments Special collections Princeton University.
