Life Science Paper Memorandum November 2014:

ICCSM2014-Proceedings of the International Conference on Cloud Security Management ICCSM-2014 Barbara Endicott-Popovsky,2014-10-07 These Proceedings are the work of researchers contributing to the 2nd International Conference on Cloud Security Management Security ICCSM 2014 being held this year at the University of Reading UK on the 23 24 October 2014 The conference chair is Dr John McCarthy Vice President from the Cyber Security ServiceTech UK and the Programme Chair is Dr Barbara Endicott Popovsky from the Center for Information Assurance and Cybersecurity University of Washington Seattle USA As organisations rush to adopt Cloud Computing at a rate faster than originally projected it is safe to predict that over the coming years Cloud Computing will have major impacts not only on the way we conduct science and research but also on the quality of our daily human lives Computation research education and business communities have been exploring the potential benefits of Cloud Computing and the changes these imply Experts have predicted that the move to the cloud will alter significantly the content of IT jobs with cloud clients needing fewer hands on skills and more skills that administer and manage information Bill Gates was recently quoted How you gather manage and use information will determine whether you win or lose Cloud Computing impacts will be broad and pervasive applying to public and private institutions alike Access to Scientific Research David J. Brown,2015-11-13 The debate about access to scientific research raises questions about the current effectiveness of scholarly communication processes This book explores from an independent point of view the current state of the STM publishing market new publishing technologies and business models as well as the information habit of researchers the politics of research funders and the demand for scientific research as a public good The book also investigates the democratisation of science including how the information needs of knowledge workers outside academia can be embraced in future Almanac of the Federal Judiciary Aspen Publishers Editorial Staff,1995-12-31 The Almanac of the Federal Judiciary has built its considerable reputation by providing balanced responsible judicial profiles of every federal judge and all the key bankruptcy judges and magistrate judges profiles that include reliable inside information based on interviews with lawyers who have argued cases before the federal judiciary Containing valuable hard to find material on every federal trial judge and appellate judge in the nation this unique resource includes Each judge s academic and professional background experience on the bench noteworthy rulings and media coverage Candid revealing commentary by lawyers based on first hand experiences before their local federal judges Helpful tips for your litigating team in shaping case strategy Important insights into each judge s style demeanor knowledge and management of courtroom proceedings And continuing in depth research with semiannual updates The Almanac of the Federal Judiciary is divided into two volumes Volume 1 District Magistrates and Bankruptcy Judges Volume 2 Circuit Judges Supreme emergency Andrew Corbett,2022-02-15 In Supreme emergency an ex Trident submarine captain considers the evolution of UK nuclear deterrence policy and the implications of a previously unacknowledged aversion to military strategies that threaten civilian casualties Drawing on extensive archival research the book provides a unique synthesis of the factors affecting British nuclear policy decision making and draws parallels between government debates about reprisals for First World War zeppelin raids on London the strategic bombing raids of the Second World War and the evolution of the UK nuclear deterrent It concludes that among all the technical factors an aversion to being seen to condone civilian casualties has inhibited government engagement with the public on deterrence strategy since 1915

Palliative care for older people Lieve Van den Block, Gwenda Albers, Sandra Martins Pereira, Bregje Onwuteaka-Philipsen, Roeline Pasman, Luc Deliens, 2015-05-07 Current projections indicate that by 2050 the number of people aged over 80 years old will rise to 395 million and that by this date 25 30% of people over the age of 85 will show some degree of cognitive decline Palliative care for older people A public health perspective provides a comprehensive account of the current state of palliative care for older people worldwide and illustrates the range of concomitant issues that as the global population ages will ever more acutely shape the decisions of policy makers and care givers The book begins by outlining the range of policies towards palliative care for older people that are found worldwide It follows this by examining an array of socio cultural issues and palliative care initiatives from the care implications of health trajectories of older people to the spiritual requirements of palliative care patients and from the need to encourage compassion towards end of life care within communities to the development of care pathways for older people Palliative care for older people A public health perspective is a valuable resource for professionals and academics in a range of healthcare and public health fields to understand the current state of policy work from around the world The book also highlights the social cultural considerations that influence the difficult decisions that those involved in palliative care face not least patients themselves and offers examples of good practice and recommendations to inspire support and direct healthcare policy and decision making at organisational regional national and international levels
