Physical Activity and Sport During the First Ten Years of Life Richard Bailey, Jennifer P. Agans, Jean Côté, Andy Daly-Smith, Phillip D. Tomporowski, 2021-04-12 Evidence suggests that the first 10 or so years of life create the foundation for subsequent participation in recreational and health related physical activity This book brings together researchers and practitioners with expertise in issues related to physical activity physical education and sport during the primary elementary phase of schooling to explore these important issues Combining inter disciplinary perspectives the book addresses the inherent complexity of researching with young children It looks at the evidence on development during the first 10 years and how that evidence relates to physical activity and to sport in pre school school and out of school Finally the book offers a series of national case studies from Asia Europe and Africa demonstrating the importance of age appropriate sport and physical activity This is important reading for any student researcher educator or policy maker with an interest in physical activity and health education in the early years or at primary elementary level paediatric exercise science or youth sport

Capturing Social and Behavioral Domains and Measures in Electronic Health Records Institute of Medicine, Board on Population Health and Public Health Practice, Committee on the Recommended Social and Behavioral Domains and Measures for Electronic Health Records, 2015-01-08 Determinants of health like physical activity levels and living conditions have traditionally been the concern of public health and have not been linked closely to clinical practice However if standardized social and behavioral data can be incorporated into patient electronic health records EHRs those data can provide crucial information about factors that influence health and the effectiveness of treatment Such information is useful for diagnosis treatment choices policy health care system design and innovations to improve health outcomes and reduce health care costs Capturing Social and Behavioral Domains and Measures in Electronic Health Records Phase 2 identifies domains and measures that capture the social determinants of health to inform the development of recommendations for the meaningful use of EHRs This report is the second part of a two part study The Phase 1 report identified 17 domains for inclusion in EHRs This report pinpoints 12 measures related to 11 of the initial domains and considers the implications of incorporating them into all EHRs This book includes three chapters from the Phase 1 report in addition to the new Phase 2 material Standardized use of EHRs that include social and behavioral domains could provide better patient care improve population health and enable more informative research The recommendations of Capturing Social and Behavioral Domains and Measures in Electronic Health Records Phase 2 will provide valuable information on which to base problem identification clinical diagnoses patient treatment outcomes assessment and population health measurement

Research on Emotion and Learning: Contributions from Latin America Camilo Hurtado-Parrado, Carlos Gantiva, Leonardo A. Ortega, Alexander Gómez-A, Lucas Cuenya, Javier Leonardo Rico, 2020-05-11 Latin America has increased its share of world scientific publications by nearly twofold during the last two decades approximately from 2 to 4% Despite this positive trend the scholarly impact of scientific research produced in the region measured in terms of citation rate remains low Two interrelated factors that contribute to this situation is that most research groups tend to work in isolation or in local sporadic collaboration and results are often published in journals that are not indexed in major citation databases e g SCOPUS or Web of Science Ultimately part of Latin American high quality research seems to remain hidden from the rest of the world Over the last decades an important number of Latin American scientists have developed fruitful research agendas on questions on learning and emotion focusing on basic and or translational research with humans and other animal models and implementing diverse methodologies Notwithstanding the important contributions of these research programs Latin American research on emotion and learning has followed the overall trend of other research fields throughout the region namely remaining partially hidden from the large scientific community of the world This Research Topic aimed to engage researchers from Latin America to share their empirical and conceptual work on learning and emotion Ultimately this effort was expected to strengthen and integrate our regional community of experts enhance global networking and establish new challenges and developments for future investigation
