Life Orientation Grade 1 exemplar Papers 2013:

Towards a holistic approach to support learners at risk of interrupted development Macalane J. Malindi, Johnnie Hay, Thabo Makhalemele, 2024-02-23 The COVID 19 pandemic and the restrictions that came with it led to unprecedented disruptions in learner development and put them at risk of poor developmental outcomes It is thus important that the extent of the disruption on their development and the support needs of learners be investigated Researching the impact of the disruption should focus on holistic development In this book the authors use multiple research approaches and methods of gathering data in their respective fields to examine the impact of the disruption and determine the support needs of learners Data gathered through the different methods are processed and findings are presented The findings have implications for both practice and future research in the fields of inclusive education learner support educational psychology movement education Life Orientation and curriculum development

Managerial and Entrepreneurial Decision Making Matteo Cristofaro, Maria José Sousa, José Carlos Sánchez-García, 2021-06-10 Since the conceptualization of bounded rationality management scholars started investigating how people managers and entrepreneurs really make decisions within and for organizations The aim of this eBook is to deeply investigate trends that have flourished within this pivotal research area in conceptual and or empirical terms trying to provide new insights on how managers and entrepreneurs make decisions within and for organizations In this vein readers that approach this eBook will be taken by hand and accompanied to the discovery of how the mind of decision makers is at the basis of organizational developments or failures In this regard published contributions in this eBook underline how executives and entrepreneurs must be ecologically rational thus be aware of the negative and positive effects that biases can have depending on the context and use them at their advantage Managerial and entrepreneurial decision making are phenomena that cannot be detached from the environment in which executives and entrepreneurs are embedded claiming to establish new approaches to research that looks at decision making as an individual group organization environment dialectical and multi level phenomenon

Un/belonging Identities: Relating Narratives of Queer Trauma Mark Vicars, Jordan Gonzalez, Liam Wrigley, Jonathan Glazzard, 2025-11-13 This Research Topic will examine the impact of trauma as it relates to the lived experiences of well being on and in LGBTQIA lives in educational domains The papers in the Topic will re present kaleidoscopic experiences of the social and cultural landscapes of the performative abjection of Queer gender and sexuality as experienced in and across cultural differences and intersectionality in school settings The papers in the collection will draw on the sociology of affect as a lens for addressing how social and emotional well being in LGBTQIA lives is a constant negotiation for young people The concept of social well being has been instrumental in bringing together a number of burgeoning disciplines across the social field sector and this Research Topic will focus on how LGBTQIA self identified young people navigate historical traumas social isolation and generate social well being in their personal lives and communities Researchers like Van der Kolk 2015 and Perry and Winfrey 2021 draw our attention to the impact of trauma on the body and the brain They highlight the damaging and often long term effect of trauma on brain development and the nervous system Attention is also given to the ways in which trauma can inhibit weaken and alter higher order thinking skills concentration and neurological pathways in the brain The body s response to trauma can also result in a constant release of hormones such as adrenalin and cortisol that can lead to a heightened nervous system To date there has been limited research on LGBTQI trauma informed narratives and their effects in Queer life worlds The Research Topic will disseminate trauma informed educative frameworks of practice strengths based resources and culturally inclusive language protocols Greig Bailey Abbott Brunzell 2021 Innovation in Design, Communication and
