The Trend Management Toolkit A. Kjaer, 2014-10-07 In a fast moving world businesses need to keep up with data analysis and pattern spotting to identify future opportunities Anne Lise Kjaer presents a unique methodology for global trend spotting along with practical tools and approaches to help companies and organizations analyse market changes and determine the way ahead

Business Ethics Gael McDonald, 2015 Business Ethics introduces students to ethical issues and decision making in a variety of contemporary contexts The book addresses corporate social responsibility stakeholder management and sustainability It develops an awareness of the many ways in which ethical considerations can manifest in commercial domains thereby helping prepare students for their professional careers

Christians Shaping Identity from the Roman Empire to Byzantium Geoffrey Dunn, Wendy Mayer, 2015-07-14 The essays collected in Christians Shaping Identity celebrate Pauline Allen's significant contribution to early Christian late antique and Byzantine studies especially concerning bishops heresy orthodoxy and christology Covering the period from earliest Christianity to middle Byzantium the first eighteen essays explore the varied ways in which Christians constructed their own identity and that of the society around them A final four essays explore the same theme within Roman Catholicism and oriental Christianity in the late 19th to 21st centuries with particular attention to the subtle relationships between the shaping of the early Christian past and the moulding of Christian identity today Among the many leading scholars represented are Averil Cameron and Elizabeth A Clark

The rule of law on the Internet Council of Europe, 2014-12-09 We exercise a significant part of our human rights today using the Internet and the wider digital environment But our human rights can also be breached using these very same means There is general agreement that human rights should be enjoyed online as they are offline In practice however the actors who can ensure that we enjoy human rights are not exactly the same in the two environments In particular the disproportionate influence and control that certain states and certain private companies exercise on the Internet and its physical infrastructure at the global level are two essential elements of this difference This issue paper looks at how the rule of law can be maintained in an environment characterised by these specific governance issues focusing on some policy areas of particular human rights relevance freedom of expression data protection and privacy cybercrime and national security It suggests possible ways forward to ensure that we can trust the rule of law to apply to our online activities

The Oxford Handbook of Theology, Sexuality, and Gender Adrian Thatcher, 2015 The Oxford Handbook of Theology Sexuality and Gender presents an unrivalled overview of the theological study of sexuality and gender These topics are not merely contentious and pervasive they have escalated in importance within theology Theologians increasingly agree that even the very doctrine of God cannot be contemplated without a prior grappling with each Featuring 41 newly commissioned essays written by some of the foremost scholars in the discipline this authoritative collection presents and develops the latest thinking in these areas Divided into eight thematic sections the Handbook explores methodological approaches contributions from neighbouring disciplines sexuality and gender in the Bible and in the Christian tradition controversies within the churches and within four of the non Christian faiths and key concepts and issues The final extended section considers theology in relation to married people and families gay and lesbian people bisexual people intersex and transgender people disabled people and to friends This volume is an essential reference for students and scholars which will also stimulate further research

Phenomenology of Community Activism Nora Amath, 2015-12-01 The Phenomenology of Community Activism explores how MCSOs have responded to the challenges of the Australian socio political context the perceived impact of these experiences and how Islam is manifested within the contexts of these experiences In contrast to much publicised jihadist and radical groups MCSOs are far more representative of Muslim communities and integral to the long term position of Islam in Australia This book offers researchers policy makers and those engaged in community development a rich understanding of Muslim community building engagement and agency This book reveals what will be surprising to some that there are many and varied MCSOs in Australia that in many ways they are similar to other civil society organisations serve similar purposes and encounter similar issues This is a very important datum to stand against the prejudices about Muslims and their organisations Professor Emeritus Gary Bouma Emeritus Professor of Sociology at Monash University UNESCO Chair in Intercultural and Interreligious Relations Asia Pacific Islamic Studies Series Volume 19
