Life Science Grade11 Question Paper September2013:

Responsible Reproductive Choice in the 21st Century Malcolm de Roubaix,2023-01-05 This book systematically traces the development significance and implications of female reproductive choice Paramount is the right to safe termination of pregnancy TOP In the USA these rights are under threat after the reversal of Roe v Wade 1973 confirming the eternally contested nature of the pro life pro choice standoff The approach is unique and from all angles historical social emotional and legal South African experience is evaluated against a global backdrop Arguing from an ethics of responsibility the book presents a justified balanced rational and moderate position on the moral acceptability of TOP It proposes that the morality TOP be evaluated by balancing inherent foetal moral significance against contingent potentiality context and circumstance that may determine foetal development TOP is a choice a woman faces with each pregnancy It always has moral implications exclusive to the life of the woman So too do continued pregnancy and parenthood but these are of greater magnitude and duration

Policy-Making in the GCC Neil Quilliam,Mark C. Thompson,2017-09-11 The GCC is a major player in the post 2011 reordering of the Middle East Despite the rise in prominence of individual Gulf states especially Kuwait Qatar Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates and the growth of the GCC as a collective entity surprisingly little attention has been paid to the actual mechanics of policy making in the region This book analyses the vital role that institutions are coming to play in shaping policy in the Gulf Arab states The research coincides with two key developments that have given institutions new importance in the policy process the emergence of a new generation of leaders in the Gulf and the era of low oil prices Both developments along with dramatic demographic change have compelled state and citizens to re evaluate the nature of the social contract that binds them together Contributors assess the changing relationship between state and citizen and evaluate the role that formal and informal institutions play in mediating such change and informing policy The book shows how academic social and economic institutions are responding to the increasingly complex process of decision making where citizens demand better services and further empowerment and states are obliged to seek wider counsel although wanting to retain ultimate authority With contributions from both academics and practitioners this book will be highly relevant for researchers and policymakers alike
