Unfolding Cluster Evolution Fiorenza Belussi,Jose Luis Hervás-Oliver,2016-08-05 Various theories have been put forward as to why business and industry develops in clusters and despite good work being carried out on path dependence and dynamics this is still very much an emerging topic in the social sciences To date no overarching theoretical framework has been developed to show how clusters evolve Unfolding Cluster Evolution aims to address this gap by presenting theoretical and empirical research on the geography of innovation This contributed volume seeks to shed light on the understanding of clusters and its dynamic evolution The book provides evidence to suggest that traditional perspectives from evolutionary economic geography need to be wedded to management thinking in order to reach this point Bringing together thinking from a range of disciplines and countries across Europe this book explores a wide range of topics from the capability approach to network dynamics to multinational corporations to firm entry and exit and social capital This book will be of interest to policy makers and students of urban studies economic geography and planning and development

Handbook of Research on Advancing Critical Thinking in Higher Education Wisdom, Sherrie,Leavitt, Lynda,2015-07-17 The importance of critical thinking has surged as academics in higher education realize that many students upon entering college lack the critical thinking skills necessary to succeed While much has been written regarding the lack of critical thinking less has been written on the success of methods implemented to develop this fundamental skill The Handbook of Research on Advancing Critical Thinking in Higher Education explores the effective methods and tools being used to integrate the development of critical thinking skills in both undergraduate and graduate studies Due to the difficulties associated with teaching critical thinking skills to learners of any age this publication is a crucial addition to the scholarly reference works available to pre service and early career teachers seasoned educational professionals professors across disciplines curriculum specialists and educational administrators

Entrepreneurial Learning City Regions Judith James,Jean Preece,Raúl Valdés-Cotera,2017-09-21 This book proposes an alternative strategy to improve and sustain prosperity through the creation of an entrepreneurial culture in learning cities or city regions The edited collection provides insights into how entrepreneurship education job creation and social inclusion can be aligned through entrepreneurial learning in the context of territorial development With rich and varied contributions from a wide field including policy makers entrepreneurs an investment banker leaders of universities and councils the voluntary sector scientists educators and students it reviews and assesses how learning cities and regions may become more prosperous by investing in the development of entrepreneurial skills throughout lifelong learning Reinforced by examples on developing and retaining entrepreneurial people this book contributes to our understanding of how entrepreneurial learning can be fostered in different city and city region contexts It makes an interesting contribution to the field in terms of mapping out complex issues and testing the practical validity of the concept while also providing rich and insightful case studies centred on the Welsh experience with entrepreneurial learning city regions The high quality international contributions demonstrate the new worldwide interest in developing an entrepreneurial culture for the benefit of a city or region rather than an entrepreneurial mind set for individual benefit This fascinating subject will be of interest to many social scientists policymakers and practitioners It will be found especially valuable for professionals involved in economic inclusive and sustainable city or regional development
