Malaysia Economic Report 2008:

Public Expenditure and Income Distribution in Malaysia Mukaramah Harun, Sze Ying Loo, 2022-07-19 This book studies the impact of public expenditure allocations in achieving income equality goals in Malaysia. The book examines the initial functional and institutional distribution of income across different institutional agents and sectors and evaluates the impact of the public expenditure policies in reducing the inter ethnic and rural urban disparity. Since Malaysia has made enormous progress in eliminating poverty, the authors suggest that a change of emphasis in the public expenditure policy may now be called for. They present evidence on the importance of public expenditure in improving income inequality and examine the initial functional and institutional distribution of income across different institutional agents and sectors. The development of the Social Accounting Matrix (SAM) model that presents both economic and social statistics in an economy can be served as a useful tool of this work. The SAM model is used to evaluate the impact of the public expenditure policies in reducing inter ethnic and rural urban disparity. A comprehensive source of information on how to deal with inequality economic challenges, the book will be of interest to economists and researchers on Southeast Asian Studies. Handbook on Trade and Development Oliver Morrissey, Ricardo A. López, Kishor Sharma, 2015-05-29 This timely Handbook comprehensively explores the complex relationships between trade and economic performance in developing countries, illustrating that it is not trade per se that is important but the context at the firm, country and regional level in which trade occurs. Facets Of Competitiveness: Narratives From Asean Ashish Lall, 2011-04-27 The ten countries in the ASEAN region account for approximately 5% of world gross domestic product and 8% of world population and represent the most diverse group of nations in terms of the level of prosperity, political system, culture, language and history. This diversity in ASEAN not only helps us understand the notion of national competitiveness but also provides important policy lessons for both developed and developing countries. This book, a collection of essays, provides insights on competitiveness challenges and policies. It provides an excellent overview of competitiveness for a group of countries at various stages of development. Written in a simple and accessible manner, this book will be of interest to students, researchers, business executives and government officials.

Asset-Building Policies and Innovations in Asia Michael Sherraden, Li Zou, Ben Hok-bun Ku, Suo Deng, Sibin Wang, 2014-11-20 Asia has long been a testing ground for efforts to augment financial and social security by developing assets that may support individuals and households and contribute to long term social development. Rapid growth in the number and breadth of asset based social policies has prompted Asian scholars, practitioners and policymakers to share lessons from current efforts and chart future directions. This book offers a unique collection of macro and micro level analyses on asset based social development and compares and contrasts national social policies across the Asia Pacific region. Many asset building policies and programmes have been undertaken in Asia and innovative proposals continue to emerge. The contributions in this book present and assess this broad, often nuanced and evolving landscape and offer an insightful Kementerian Kewangan,2012 No Miracle Mitchell Wigdor,2016-05-23 No Miracle examines the role of institutions in bridging the digital divide between rich and poor nations and what that means for the country s integration into a global economy Shifting the debate from whether institutions are important to economic development to which institutions are important and how to build them Mitchell Wigdor expertly addresses fundamental shortcomings in the existing development literature by identifying specific institutions that mediate the relationship between Information and Communications Technology ICT and economic growth In doing so he challenges those concerned with development to shift their gaze from whether institutions are important to economic development to which institutions might be the focus of government efforts and how to build them Detailed case studies of the economic development strategies of Singapore and Malaysia from 1960 demonstrate that institution building and economic development may be as much about process as the specific policies governments pursue Written in accessible non technical language this book should be read by everyone concerned with economic growth both in less economically developed countries and the more prosperous including those in government international organizations NGOs universities policy makers and the private sector Statistics Sources ,2010 Malaysia, International Trade and Industry Report ,2009 Financial Policy and Management of Capital Flows Martin Khor,2009 Tenth Malaysia Plan 2011-2015 Malaysia.
