Management Economics An Accelerated Approach:

Management Economics: An Accelerated Approach William G. Forgang, Karl W. Einolf, 2015-03-26 Thoroughly classroom tested this text is designed specifically for one semester accelerated and online courses at the upper undergraduate and MBA levels. It is based on the theme that business and personal decisions are made within both micro and macro economic environments. By understanding the environments and their effects on outcomes of decisions, better choices can be made. The text also differs from others in the area because it is less theoretical; it provides a broader perspective for management problem solving and it bridges economics with other business disciplines. Each chapter includes a management decision oriented case study that applies tools of economic analysis. An online instructors manual is available to professors who adopt the text.

Challenge Magazine, 2006 Final Report of the 105(b) Economic and Policy Analysis United States. Office of Minerals Policy and Research Analysis, 1980 Game Theory and Postwar American Literature Michael Wainwright, 2017-02-14 If game theory, the mathematical simulation of rational decision making, first axiomatically established by the Hungarian born American mathematician John von Neumann, is to prove worthy of literary hermeneutics, then critics must be able to apply its models to texts written without a working knowledge of von Neumann's discipline in mind. Reading such iconic novels as Fahrenheit 451, In Cold Blood, and Kiss Tomorrow Goodbye from the perspective of the four most frequently encountered coordination problems, the Stag Hunt, the Prisoner's Dilemma, Chicken, and Deadlock Game Theory and Postwar American Literature illustrates the significant contribution of mathematical models to literary interpretation. The interdisciplinary approach of this book contributes to an understanding of the historical, political, and social contexts that surround the texts produced in the post Cold War years, as well as providing a comprehensive model of joining game theory and literary criticism.

Cheap Ellen Ruppel Shell, 2009-07-02 A myth shattering investigation of the true cost of America's passion for finding a better bargain. From the shuttered factories of the Rust Belt to the strip malls of the Sun Belt, and almost everywhere in between, America has been transformed by its relentless fixation on low price. This pervasive yet little examined obsession with bargains is arguably the most powerful and devastating market force of our time, having fueled an excess of consumerism that blights our landscapes, escalates personal debt, lowers our standard of living, and even skews our concept of time. Spotlighting the peculiar forces that drove Americans away from quality, durability, and craftsmanship and towards quantity, quantity, and more quantity, Ellen Ruppel Shell traces the rise of the bargain through our current big box profusion to expose the astronomically high cost of cheap.

Financial Accounting in an Economic Context Jamie Pratt, Michael F. Peters, 2017-01-10 Financial Accounting 10th Edition by Jamie Pratt and Michael Peters provides students with a clear understanding of financial accounting by framing accounting processes in the context of real world business practices. It builds solid foundations in the mechanics of preparing the financial statements and the theories underlying the accounting measures of performance so that students can clearly understand the economic consequences.

Kantian Dignity and Trolley Problems in the Literature of Richard Wright Michael Wainwright, 2023-10-27 This book examines the literature of African American author Richard Wright and the philosophy of Immanuel Kant arguing that Wright was not only the foremost proponent of minoritarian protest literature but also a groundbreaking minoritarian exponent of philosophical literature In presenting this argument the volume defends trolley problems from the criticism that some philosophers level against them by promoting their use as an interpretive tool for literary scholars Starting with Martha C Nussbaum's interventions in literary theory concerning Henry James and perceptive equilibrium this book draws on the philosophical thoughts of her contemporaries Philippa Foot John Rawls Judith Jarvis Thomson and Derek Parfit to analyze Uncle Tom's Children especially Down by the Riverside alongside other works by Wright This approach emphasizes Wright's recognition of the importance and integrity of Kant's concept of dignity

Game Theory and Minorities in American Literature Michael Wainwright, 2017-03-07 This interdisciplinary monograph applies the theory of games of strategy or game theory to an important subset of American literature minoritarian texts Fittingly John von Neumann's game theory as a mathematical subdiscipline practically abandoned by its founder after the publication of Zur Theorie der Gesellschaftsspiele 1928 but purposefully reengaged with on his permanent relocation to America in 1938 carries the minoritarian credentials of a Hungarian born national of Jewish descent The state of international politics in the late 1930s certainly contributed to von Neumann's renewed interest in his theory but a socioeconomic environment built on the legacy of slavery focused a reengagement with coordination problems that would last until his death In these strategic situations people must make choices in the knowledge that other people face the same options and that the outcome for each person will result from everybody's decisions The four most frequently encountered coordination problems are the Stag Hunt the Prisoner's

Dilemma Chicken and Deadlock Minoritarians find majoritarian attempts to control these social dilemmas particularly challenging Hence a game theoretically inflected hermeneutic that identifies the logical rational and strategic state of human interrelations not only helps to categorize but also to analyze minoritarian texts The authors under detailed consideration are Benjamin Franklin Frederick Douglass Harriet A Jacobs Zora Neale Hurston William Faulkner Toni Morrison and Mohsin Hamid
