Lucy Calkins Kindergarten:

Creating Schools That Heal Lesley Koplow, 2015 Lesley Koplow's well-examined truths uncover an image of intimacy between teacher and child sorely needed in our schools. Her emotionally responsive teacher is the pivot for a classroom community that visibly supports and honors its members in the great variety of their lives. What stands in the way is the question Ms. Koplow courageously answers. Vivian Gussin Paley, author of In Mrs. Tulley's Room: A Childcare Portrait. In a world where children are beset by violence and stress, Lesley Koplow provides educators with clear, level-headed advice on how to construct therapeutic learning environments for all children. This is a book about integrating preventive mental health practice into public schools, preschool through grade 5. Koplow, a psychotherapist, discusses the mandate for violence prevention and offers an intervention framework for teachers, administrators, and school-based clinicians who want to improve the emotional climate in their school. This important and timely volume helps educators read the signs of distress or problematic social-emotional development as they are likely to manifest themselves in the school setting. Introduces a practice model that calls for strengthened teacher-child connections. Addresses in separate chapters the roles of the teacher, principal, and school-based clinician providing guidance and effective strategies for each. Demonstrates that interventions can be done effectively by existing school personnel. Describes a project to facilitate teacher gathering of psycho-social history that can be used to inform constructive curricular practice. Poses compelling questions for policymakers including concerns about the effect that the current focus on standards and test scores is having on the emotional tone of schools. Includes a chapter addressing what we've learned from the recent tragic events of September 11th in New York City. A Field Guide to the Classroom Library Lucy Calkins, 2002 Provides comprehensive and accessible leveled lists and guides for 1,200 children's trade books for kindergarten through 6th grade to help teachers build classroom libraries. Learning to Write and Loving It! Preschool-Kindergarten Miriam P. Trehearne, 2011-08-17 Learning to Write and Loving It equips teachers of young children with practical strategies, assessment tools, and motivating writing activities that are based on current research and proven practice and are easily applicable to all kinds of learning environments. Included are many authentic writing samples and photos to illustrate effective developmentally appropriate instructional methods, mini-lessons, and activities. Sought-after author and speaker Miriam P. Trehearne demonstrates how to scaffold play and literacy learning and how to easily link assessment to instruction. Key features differentiate using effective instructional approaches for teaching writing and supporting inquiry and play, assess and document student writing seamlessly throughout the day, motivate and engage children in writing fiction, narrative, nonfiction, poetry, and song, enjoy learning with a powerful collection of vignettes from real classrooms, and use teacher-friendly guidelines for effectively integrating technology and selecting software for young children. A companion CD offers modifiable reproducible observation checklists, assessments, and projects for parents to do with their young children. Learn how to successfully scaffold writing and in the process foster cross-curricular skills in
