The Church Usher Robert Degraw, 2010-03 In my youth I would watch the ushers at church and thought it would be neat to usher It didn't look hard and I'd get to greet everyone When I got old enough I volunteered and was hooked After I was married and moved to the big city the church I attend was very large and like most churches they needed ushers I was promoted very quickly and the responsibility didn't bother me Then I was drawn to a new daughter church This was a challenge a brand new church I offered what I could When things got settled I was running one of the services When the Head ushers spot came open I didn't think I was ready so I prayed about it A calmness came over me and I knew then it was what God wanted me to do David Foos Head Usher Canyon Hills Community Church Bothell Washington

Heinrich Heshusius and Confessional Polemic in Early Lutheran Orthodoxy Michael J. Halvorson, 2016-04-22 Heinrich

Heshusius 1556 97 became a leading church superintendent and polemicist during the early age of Lutheran orthodoxy and played a major role in the reform and administration of several German cities during the late Reformation As well as offering an introduction to Heshusius s writings and ideas this volume explores the wider world of late sixteenth century German Lutheranism in which he lived and worked In particular it looks at the important but inadequately understood network of Lutheran clergymen in North Germany centred around universities such as Rostock Jena K nigsberg and Helmstedt and territories such as Braunschweig Wolfenb ttel in the years after the promulgation of the Formula of Concord 1577 In 1579 Heshusius followed his father Tilemann to the newly founded University of Helmstedt where Heinrich served as a professor on the philosophy faculty and established lasting connections within the Gnesio Lutheran party In the 1590s Heshusius completed his doctoral degree in theology and worked as a pastor and superintendent in Tonna and Hildesheim publishing over seventy sermons as well as a popular catechism based on the Psalms and Luther s Small Catechism As confessional tensions mounted in Hildesheim Heshusius worked as a polemicist for the Lutheran cause pressing for the conversion or expulsion of local Jews At the same time Heshusius began to argue aggressively for the expulsion of Jesuits who had been increasing in number due to the activities of the local bishop and administrator Ernst II of Bavaria By discussing the connection between these two expulsion efforts and the practical activities Heshusius undertook as a preacher catechist and administrator this study portrays Heshusius as a zealous protector of Lutheran traditions in the face of confessional rivals Understanding this zeal and the policies piety and propaganda that came as a result is an important factor in relating how Lutheran orthodoxy gained momentum within Germany in the last decades of the sixteenth century In all this book will reveal the complex characteristics of an important but virtually unknown Lutheran superintendent and theologian active during the era of confessionalization providing a useful resource for the ongoing efforts of scholars hoping to understand the nature of orthodoxy and its importance for early modern Europeans f     The Reformation of Prayer among Sixteenth-Century Lutherans Mary Jane Haemig,2025-03-22 In sixteenth century Germany Martin Luther and his followers engaged in a thorough reform of beliefs and practices related to prayer a reform rooted in Luther s theological insights Rejecting medieval beliefs that saw prayer as a good work Luther and his followers saw prayer as a human response to God s command to pray and promise to hear It was a good work done freely not to earn salvation but rather to converse with God Luther and his followers taught prayer in many different ways They used catechisms and catechesis to teach the basics of Christian belief including the Lord s Prayer They emphasized understanding the petitions of prayer not just reciting words They encouraged the use of the psalms as prayers and produced literature designed to make the psalms accessible and understandable They published prayerbooks to instruct in prayer and offer prayers for a variety of vocations and situations Lutheran sermons taught prayer both on particular occasions and on many Sundays of the church year Worship taught prayer and provided models for prayer Literature for those suffering sickness death plague childbirth and war taught prayer as part of its effort to console Literature for theological students and manuals designed to help pastors in their ministries contained instruction in prayer highlighting the importance of prayer in the life and ministry of the pastor and helping them to teach prayer This book gives a comprehensive overview of the theological underpinnings for prayer as well as the strategies and literature used by Luther and his followers as they taught prayer to all people      A Manual of Church History Arthur Charles Jennings,1891 A Manual of Church History by Arthur Jennings Charles first published in 1891 is a rare manuscript the original residing in one of the great libraries of the world This book is a reproduction of that original which has been scanned and cleaned by state of the art publishing tools for better readability and enhanced appreciation Restoration Editors mission is to bring long out of print manuscripts back to life Some smudges annotations or unclear text may still exist due to permanent damage to the original work We believe the literary significance of the text justifies offering this reproduction allowing a new generation to appreciate it      Lutheran Evangelist ,1904      Church Ushers Manual - A Handbook for Church Ushers and All Others Who Would Promote the Spirit of Fellowship in the House of God Williso O.
