EXCERPT Look First star of the night Caleb pointed out the living room picture window and helped Delanie to her feet pulling her to come stand next to him Make a wish Delanie gave him a long uncertain look then glanced at the pinpoint of white light before closing her eyes for several long seconds He stared at her drinking in her presence knowing she couldn't feel uncomfortable about his gaze if she couldn't see it Her eyes fluttered open and she blushed Were you looking at me the whole time His face warmed Maybe he mumbled Didn't you make a wish He shook his head I don't need to My wish is standing right here He pulled her into him and enveloped her in his arms She stiffened then relaxed and wrapped her arms around his waist leaning into his chest I have a confession to make he said I never got over you Not for a single second After a pause she said A wish isn't enough to overcome all the obstacles between us No But it's enough to make me believe we could This time I have no intention of letting you go anywhere without me Whatever happens I want to give us a fair shot
