

Writing a term paper on metaphors can be a daunting task for many students. Metaphors are complex literary devices that require a deep understanding and analysis to fully grasp their meaning and significance. As a result, writing a metaphor term paper can be a challenging and time-consuming process.

One of the biggest challenges in writing a metaphor term paper is finding the right topic. Metaphors can be found in a wide range of literary works, from poems and novels to speeches and advertisements. Choosing a specific topic that is both interesting and relevant can be a difficult task, especially for those who are not familiar with the subject matter.

Another difficulty in writing a metaphor term paper is conducting thorough research. Metaphors are not always explicitly stated in a text, and it takes a skilled researcher to identify and analyze them effectively. This requires a deep understanding of the literary work and its context, as well as the ability to critically analyze and interpret the metaphors used.

In addition to these challenges, writing a metaphor term paper also requires strong writing skills. Not only do students need to convey their ideas clearly and effectively, but they also need to use appropriate language and structure to support their arguments. This can be particularly challenging for non-native English speakers or those who struggle with writing in general.

Metaphors as Cognitive Phenomena Dominik

Doeppert,2015-08-11 Seminar paper from the year 2015 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Linguistics grade 1 7 University of Augsburg language English abstract Most people consider metaphors to be merely linguistic devises that are used for poetic purposes A standard dictionary definition of metaphor is quite similar The Oxford Dictionary defines metaphor as a word or phrase used to describe sb sth else This definition falls in line with a layman s notion of metaphors being purely linguistic with the sole purpose of functioning as decorative features However metaphors go much deeper than that Metaphors are in fact fundamental components of human cognition that are not just linguistic but conceptual in nature Through metaphors patterns of thought in a society are encoded and shared So in order to show that metaphors share patterns of thought in a society songs of the Beatles shall be examined seeing as the Beatles are one the most popular and successful bands of our time with fans from all around the world The metaphors used in the Beatles songs are not merely figures of speech or stylistic devises but cognitive phenomena that share patterns of thought in a society The Beatles songs are a great medium to help prove that conceptual systems play a paramount role in establishing our everyday realities because of they are so widely popular This paper seeks to show that Lakoff s and Johnson s notion of metaphors representing a way of thinking as made popular in their Conceptual Metaphor Theory also holds true for metaphors in the Beatles songs Drawing upon Lakoff s and Johnson s Conceptual Metaphor Theory this paper also attempts to illuminate how the Beatles success is at least partly due to the systematicity of metaphorical concepts Even though most people are not normally aware of conceptual systems present in our society most of these conceptual systems are indeed metaphorical in nature and determine to a large extent our perception of the world The metaphorical concepts present in the Beatles lyrics are very much coherent with the metaphorical structuring of certain experiences in our society which is why so many people can relate to the Beatles songs because the concepts expressed therein are compatible with their conceptualisation of how they perceive the world

Conceptual Metaphors of Romantic Love in Western Comic and Japanese Manga

Ellen Thießen, Maria Schnyder, 2011-11-09 Seminar paper from the year 2009 in the subject Communications Broadcast and entertainment grade 1.0 University of Groningen Faculty of Arts course Language Communication and Culture language English abstract According to Lakoff and Johnson 1980 metaphors involve a mapping of a tangible source domain on an intangible target domain and enable therefore the expression of concepts difficult to verbalise as such ROMANTIC LOVE is one of these concepts Indeed romantic love is commonly thought of as a mysterious emotion which it is notoriously difficult to pin down Various authors in various disciplines have expressed the view that this is a concept that is difficult to grapple with and define Kvecses 1986 By analysing the conceptual metaphors used to describe ROMANTIC LOVE in conventionalised language Kvecses succeeded to describe the constituents and structure of this concept Kvecses research on the concept of ROMANTIC LOVE and the cultural variation of metaphor is based exclusively on verbal evidence As Charles Forceville 2005 69 acknowledged in the interest of enriching insights into ideological conceptual metaphors non verbal and multimedial representations need to be investigated as well mostly in order to break the vicious cycle of saying that verbal metaphoric expressions are evidence of conceptual metaphors and then saying that we know that because we see conceptual metaphors expressed in language Cienki 1998 The present paper aims to extend Kvecses research by analysing the visual expression of ROMANTIC LOVE and its cross cultural variation in comics Indeed as Forceville 2005 71 mentioned comics are a good source of pictorial data for such a project unlike for instance realistic photographs and live action films which are more or less naturally mirror real life manifestations of emotions comics and cartoons make use of stereotypical exaggerations and of a rudimentary sign system very much like a language In a first part our paper will show how Kvecses characterisation of the concept of ROMANTIC LOVE surfaces visually in the comic Asterix The second part of this paper aims to explore this cross cultural variation in the visual domain by comparing the results of the analysis of Asterix to Japanese Manga Our research will be done on following data three volumes of German translations of the French comic Asterix Asterix als Legionär Vol 10 Asterix und Latraviata Vol 31 and Obelix auf Kreuzfahrt Vol 30 and the Japanese manga I s Vol 7 Tsubasa Vol 13 Natsuki Takaya Vol 3 In all of these comics romantic love plays an essential role

At the core: Metaphors and Preference Consistency David Busse, 2011-08-26 Master's Thesis from the year 2011 in the subject Business economics Offline Marketing and Online Marketing grade 1.0 Otto von Guericke University Magdeburg language English abstract In 2009 the three academics On Amir Dan Ariely and Leonard Lee published the article In Search of Homo Economicus in the Journal of Consumer Research JCR After having conducted five experiments the conclusion of this article was that people who put more trust in their feelings show more consistent preferences than people who base their decisions on analytics and deliberation. Supported was that resulting conclusion of the psychological fundamental that emotions are nothing more than efficient programmes designed by evolution to ensure species preserving reactions on external influences. The author of the present paper tested the aforementioned tenor critically by setting up two experiments using the previous work by Amir Ariely and Lee as a basis. In the first experiment 131 probands were tested in a second slightly modified experiment 26 persons participated in the experiment. After several tests of the collected data material the conclusion of Amir Ariely and Lee cannot be supported. In fact data of persons who are assumed to be deliberate thinkers showed lower numbers of errors.
