Continuing City Alan R. Tippet, 2013-09-20 Alan Tippet's publications played a significant role in the development of missiology. The volumes in this series augment his distinguished reputation by bringing to light his many unpublished materials and hard to locate printed articles. These books encompassing theology, anthropology, history, area studies, religion, and ethnohistory broaden the contours of the discipline. As a gift to Edna and the children on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary, Tippet completed his autobiography ironically just months prior to his death. Containing personal reflections on his childhood and later mission experiences in the South Pacific, relationship with Donald McGavran, and the founding of the School of World Mission and retirement years in Australia, Continuing City is the inside story. These are Tippet's personal reflections that can be found in no other publication. Twenty years as a missionary in Fiji, following pastoral ministry in Australia, and graduate degrees in history and anthropology provide the rich database that made Alan R. Tippet a leading missiologist of the twentieth century. Tippet served as Professor of Anthropology and Oceanic Studies at Fuller Theological Seminary.
