Law Pre Entry 2015 2016

Alexandr Svetlicinii, I-Ju Chen

Law Pre Entry 2015 2016:

Lawyers in 21st-Century Societies Richard L Abel, Ole Hammerslev, Hilary Sommerlad, Ulrike Schultz, 2020-04-02 The world's legal professions have undergone dramatic changes in the 30 years since publication of the landmark three volume Lawyers in Society which launched comparative sociological studies of lawyers. This is the first of two volumes in which scholars from a wide range of disciplines, countries and cultures document and analyse those changes. The present volume presents reports on 46 countries with broad coverage of North America, Western Europe, Latin America, Asia, Australia, North Africa and the Middle East, sub-Saharan Africa and former communist countries. These national reports address the impact of globalisation and neoliberalism on national legal professions, the relationship of lawyers and their professional associations to the state and tensions between state and citizenship, changes in lawyer demography, rapidly growing numbers and the profession's efforts to retain control, the entry of women and obstacles to full gender equality, ethnic diversity, legal education, the proliferation of institutions and pedagogic innovation, the regulation of lawyers, structures of production, especially the growth of large firms and the impact of technology and paraprofessionals, the distribution of lawyers across roles and access to justice, state-funded legal aid and pro bono services. The juxtaposition of the reports reveals the dramatic transformations of professional rationales, labour markets and working practices and the multiple contingencies of the role of lawyers in societies experiencing increasing juridification within a new geopolitical order.

Reconceptualizing International Investment Law from the Global South Fabio Morosini, Michelle Ratton Sanchez Badin, 2017-10-26 This book shows how the current reform in investment regulation is part of a broader attempt to transform the international economic order. Countries in the North and South are currently rethinking how economic order should be constituted in order to advance their national interests and preferred economic orientation. While some countries in the North seek to create alternative institutional spaces in order to promote neoliberal policies more effectively, some countries in the South are increasingly skeptical of this version of economic order and are experimenting with alternative versions of legal ordering that do not always sit well with mainstream versions promoted by the North. While we recognize that there are differences in approaches to the investment regimes proposed by countries in the South, we identify commonalities that could function as the founding pillars of an alternative economic order.

The EU-China Comprehensive Agreement on Investment Alexandr Svetlicinii, I-Ju Chen, 2024-12-11 This book discusses the major features of the EU-China Comprehensive Agreement on Investment (CAI) and its likely impact on investment liberalisation in China, Europe's largest trading partner. The principal aim of the book is to evaluate the progress of the investment liberalisation efforts pursued by the negotiators of the CAI. Part I: Geopolitical Origins and Negotiations of the EU-China Comprehensive Agreement on Investment examines the interests, motivations and expectations of the parties during the negotiation process and following the agreement in principle on the CAI. Part II: Substantive Issues of the EU-China Comprehensive Agreement on Investment considers specific focus areas that are critical for the mutual opening of the European and Chinese markets for foreign investors Part III Dispute Resolution Mechanisms of the EU China Comprehensive Agreement on Investment reviews the applicability and effectiveness of the available dispute settlement and treaty enforcement mechanisms provided for in the CAI including investor state dispute settlement state to state dispute settlement and non adversarial methods The book offers a combination of theoretical perspectives that will be of interest to international economic law scholars and provides practical insights on how the CAI is likely to shape the investment landscape for European businesses in China
