Kaye Stacey, Ross Turner

Maths Common Paper June 2013 Grade 9:

Assessing Mathematical Literacy Kaye Stacey, Ross Turner, 2014-11-03 This book describes the design development delivery and impact of the mathematics assessment for the OECD Programme for International Student Assessment PISA First the origins of PISA's concept of mathematical literacy are discussed highlighting the underlying themes of mathematics as preparation for life after school and mathematical modelling of the real world and clarifying PISA's position within this part of the mathematics education territory The PISA mathematics framework is introduced as a significant milestone in the development and dissemination of these ideas The underlying mathematical competencies on which mathematical literacy so strongly depends are described along with a scheme to use them in item creation and analysis The development and implementation of the PISA survey and the consequences for the outcomes are thoroughly discussed Different kinds of items for both paper based and computer based PISA surveys are exemplified by many publicly released items along with details of scoring The novel survey of the opportunity students have had to learn the mathematics promoted through PISA is explained The book concludes by surveying international impact It presents viewpoints of mathematics educators on how PISA and its constituent ideas and methods have influenced teaching and learning practices curriculum arrangements assessment practices and the educational debate more generally in fourteen countries

English and Its Teachers Simon Gibbons, 2017-04-21 English and Its Teachers offers a historical overview of the development of secondary English teaching in schools over the past 50 years Initially charting the rise of a new progressive approach in the 1960s the book then considers the implications for the subject and its teachers of three decades of central policy intervention Throughout document and interview data are combined to construct a narrative that details the fascinating and at times turbulent history The book is divided into two main parts The age of invention and The age of intervention The first of these sections details how innovative English teachers and academics helped to develop a new model The second section explores how successive governments have sought to shape English through policy A final part draws comparisons with the teaching of the subject in other major English speaking nations and considers what the future might hold English and Its Teachers is a valuable resource for those interested in the teaching of English in secondary schools from new entrants to the profession to experienced teachers and academics working in the sector

The Linguistic Challenge of the Transition to Secondary School Alice Deignan, Duygu Candarli, Florence Oxley, 2022-12-30 This book provides a unique analysis and description of the linguistic challenges faced by school students as they move from primary to secondary school a major transition which some students struggle with emotionally and academically The study draws on a bespoke corpus of 2.5 million words of written materials and transcribed classroom recordings provided by the project's partner schools combines quantitative and qualitative approaches to the corpus data to explore linguistic variation across school levels registers and subjects describes the procedures of corpus compilation and analysis of written and spoken academic language showing how modern corpus tools can be applied to this far reaching social and educational issue uncovers differences and similarities between the academic language that school children are exposed to at primary and secondary school contrasting this against the backdrop of the non academic language that they encounter outside school This book is important reading for advanced students and researchers in corpus linguistics applied linguistics and teacher education It carries implications for policymakers and schools looking to support students at this critical point in their schooling The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
