She was desperately unhappy and on the verge of losing everything. Not accepting that this was going to be it, she set about researching ways to improve her life. She learnt about the incredible power of our thoughts, our subconscious mind and the astonishing power of our feelings. This power is within every single one of us but so few have any real understanding of it. Sue has transformed her life to one of complete happiness, inner peace and financial abundance, a far cry from her state of depression. In this inspiring, easy to read and practical book, Sue educates, empowers and motivates the reader by sharing all that she has learnt. She includes solid content and practical life transforming techniques that can be put to use immediately at home and at work. Learning Cooperatively under Challenging Circumstances Christine Schmalenbach, 2018-03-06 Christine Schmalenbach examines the use and potential of cooperation among students at high risk schools in El Salvador with the objective of facilitating a culture and context sensitive use of cooperative learning in this setting and in similar ones in other countries. At the core is an ethnography of a marginalized neighborhood in the metropolitan area of San Salvador. The author collected data throughout a school year mostly through participant observation and interviews with teachers, students, parents and co-workers of a local NGO. To provide context, she conducted a literature review on the history of cooperation among students in El Salvador and implemented an exploratory survey among teachers in the same municipality. Canadian Bookseller and Library Journal, 1898 The Booklist, 1922 Lavengro George Borrow, 1905 Dialogues of Love León (Hebreo), 2009 Leone's Dialogues consists of three conversations: On Love and Desire, On the Universality of Love, and On the Origin of Love, that take place over a period of three subsequent days. They are organized in a dialogic format much like a theatrical representation of a conversation between a man, Philo, who plays the role of the lover and teacher, and a woman, Sophia, the beloved and pupil. The discussion covers a wide range of topics that have as their common denominator the idea of Love. Through the dialogue, the author explores many different points of view and complex philosophical ideas. Grounded in a distinctly Jewish tradition and drawing on Neoplatonic philosophical structures and Arabic sources, the work offers a useful compendium of classical and contemporary thought yet was not incompatible
