Rury, 2023-10-13 An Age of Accountability highlights the role of test based accountability as a policy framework in American education from 1970 to 2020 For more than half a century the quest to hold schools and educators accountable for academic achievement has relied almost exclusively on standardized assessment The theory of change embedded in almost all test based accountability programs held that assessment with stipulated consequences could lead to major improvements in schools This was accomplished politically by proclaiming lofty goals of attaining universal proficiency and closing achievement gaps which repeatedly failed to materialize But even after very clear disappointments no other policy framework has emerged to challenge its hegemony The American public today has little confidence in institutions to improve the quality of goods and services they provide especially in the public sector As a consequence many Americans continue to believe that accountability remains a vital necessity even if educators and policy scholars disagree Data Ethics of Power Hasselbalch, Gry, 2021-12-09 Data Ethics of Power takes a reflective and fresh look at the ethical implications of transforming everyday life and the world through the effortless costless and seamless accumulation of extra layers of data By shedding light on the constant tensions that exist between ethical principles and the interests invested in this socio technical transformation the book bridges the theory and practice divide in the study of the power dynamics that underpin these processes of the digitalization of the world Make It Happen Kim Bailey, Chris Jakicic, 2018-12-07 Ensure every educator is engaged in the right work with a collective focus on improved student learning Aligned to the Professional Learning Communities PLC at Work model this resource includes instructional coaching tools processes protocols templates tips and strategies designed to support the multidimensional work of instructional coaches and PLC training Each chapter includes action steps and reflective coaching activities as well as suggestions for navigating some of the most common issues instructional coaches face Use this book to understand the unique requirements of instructional coaches in building a school that answers the four critical questions of a PLC at Work Learn how to provide PLC training and professional development for collaborative teacher teams Study three major variables that will affect instructional coaching capacity culture and context and four major actions that will act as guiding principles Explore issues that can arise in PLC schools as well as teacher coaching strategies to help resolve these issues Deepen your understanding of instructional coaching in a PLC with helpful online reproducibles and teacher coaching tools Acquire capacity building strategies aligned to the four PLC questions Contents Introduction Chapter 1 How to Get Started as an Instructional Coach Chapter 2 What Do We Want Students to Know and Be Able to Do Chapter 3 How Will We Know if They Have Learned It Chapter 4 How Will We Respond When Some Students Do Not Learn Chapter 5 How Will We Extend the Learning of Students Who Are Already Proficient Epilogue Maintaining the Momentum and Sustaining the Process

References and Resources Index Cognitive Diagnostic Assessment for Learning Peida Zhan, Feiming Li, Hong Jiao, 2022-01-19 Narrating the Soviet Era in Russian School History Textbooks Olga Konkka, 2025-09-03 This study focuses on how Russian history textbooks published between 1992 and 2021 dealt with the topic of the Soviet period 1917-1991. Representations of this part of Russia's past in school manuals have provoked vivid debates and bolstered government intervention in the field while a gradual shift towards a less critical narrative of the USSR in more recent textbooks is often presented as directed by Vladimir Putin. This study combines research into these texts and inquiry into those who write, publish, approve or criticize them. Bringing together these perspectives provides a more complex view of school textbooks as final products of both top-down and bottom-up processes. This volume is aimed at postgraduate researchers and academics specializing in Soviet history, contemporary Russian politics and society, and history education and textbooks.
