

The background of the entire image is a photograph of a cave's interior. A bright, glowing light source is visible through an opening at the far end of the cave, creating a strong backlight effect. The cave walls are dark and textured, with some stalactites visible. In the foreground, the floor is composed of reddish-brown earth and several large, flat, circular stones or platforms. The word "KIVA" is superimposed in the center of the image in large, white, three-dimensional block letters.

Kiva & the Stone Nation S E Doyle, S. E. Lynch, 2013-10 Kiva thinks she s stepped over into the dark side of craziness Literally For when her twelfth birthday approaches strange creatures appear to her both at home and at her middle school No one else seems to see them Plus she begins to hear the twin mak taes or spirit bears living inside her one gentle and one angry Her grandmother Hota has advised her to wisely choose which bear to feed for one day Kiva will inherit her grandmother s abilities as a YaYa Hik a powerful shape shifting shaman But Kiva is convinced her grandmother is crazy and fears she has inherited Hota's crazy genes. Then a coyote wanders into the end of the school year dance and singles Kiva out by sniffing her in front of the entire student body. Already considered the school loser, her classmates begin to wonder if she was the cause of the animal's strange behavior. Hoping to escape her embarrassment, Kiva leaves town with her parents for a weekend trip to her grandparents' ranch in southern Colorado. It's there she receives the text from her best friend with the biggest blow of all: The most popular girl in school has spoken. The friendship is over. Blind with hurt and anger, Kiva runs away disappearing into the forbidden canyon behind the cabin. She soon becomes lost in the vast mystical forest that lines the canyon walls. As she winds her way among the trees, mysterious creatures intersect her path and lead her to Scout, a girl-shaped boulder and member of the Stone Nation called upon by the Everything Maker to guide Kiva to her destiny. Scout teaches Kiva the twelve lessons to becoming a YaYa Hik. And as she instructs, she shares with Kiva the danger that faces the Elders of the Stone Nation. If someone doesn't help, they will soon be destroyed by a heartless and greedy man who will stop at nothing to find the oil he thinks lies beneath the ancient and magnificent stones. In the end, Kiva must decide: Will she heed Scout's urgings, accept that she is the legendary YaYa Hik of Hota's stories, and embrace her new abilities to save the Stone Nation? Or will she listen to her father's logic and find her way home before she loses the only friend she has ever known? Kiva's path becomes clear in The Forbidden Canyon, the first book in the Kiva and the Stone Nation series. The Novel of the American West John R. Milton, 1980

The chief concern of this study is what the author calls the capital W Western novel, the serious work of literature which is as well written and as significant as the major novels of any other region but which has gone relatively unnoticed or has been misunderstood by critics because it has been confused generically with the lowercase w western, the popular formula western hacked out for the mass market. Society of Automotive Engineers, 2000 The Book Buyer, 1904 Streampunks Robert Kyncl, Maany Peyvan, 2017-09-05 An entertainment and tech insider, YouTube's chief business officer, delivers the first detailed account of the rise of YouTube, the creative minds who have capitalized on it to become pop culture stars, and how streaming video is revolutionizing the media world. In the past ten years, the internet video platform YouTube has changed media and entertainment as profoundly as the invention of film, radio, and television did more than six decades earlier. Streampunks is a firsthand account of this upstart company, examining how it evolved and where it will take us next. Sharing behind-the-scenes stories of YouTube's most influential stars, Streampunks like Tyler Oakley, Lilly Singh, and Casey Neistat, and the dealmakers brokering the future of entertainment like Scooter Braun and Shane Smith, Robert Kyncl uses his experiences at three of the most innovative media companies, HBO, Netflix, and YouTube, to tell the story of streaming video and this modern pop culture juggernaut. Collaborating with Google speechwriter Maany Peyvan, Kyncl explains how the new rules of entertainment are being written and how and why the media landscape is radically changing while giving aspiring Streampunks some necessary advice to launch their own new media careers. Kyncl persuasively argues that despite concerns about technology impoverishing artists, or undermining artistic quality the new media revolution is actually fueling a creative boom and leading to more compelling diverse and immersive content Enlightening surprising and thoroughly entertaining Streampunks is a revelatory ride through the new media rebellion that is reshaping our world Utopian Vistas Lois Palken Rudnick,1996 Mabel Dodge Luhan hostess and visionary made Taos New Mexico a center for artists and utopians when she moved there in 1917 and began inviting friends to visit her Utopian Vistas is a chronicle of the house Mabel Dodge Luhan built in Taos and the poets painters photographers filmmakers writers educators and visionaries whose lives and works were affected by the house and its environs Skillfully combining scholarship and a gift for storytelling author Lois Rudnick weaves a complex tapestry depicting American counter cultures in New Mexico from the 1920s to the 1990s Against a backdrop of Southwest scenery Indian and Hispanic cultures and expatriate Anglos the story of the Mabel Dodge Luhan house unfolds from its inception in 1918 to its modern day incarnation as a center for alternate education Meticulous architectural descriptions are juxtaposed with insightful comments on the personalities from D H Lawrence and Georgia O Keeffe to Dennis Hopper and George McGovern who have owned or visited the Luhan property Inter ethnic strife and ongoing poverty hippies and Chicano radicals gifted artisans and doped up geniuses mystics and ghosts mingle together in this compelling story of the house that Mabel built BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Western American Literature ,2014 Southwestern American Literature ,2004 The Story of Our National Monuments ... ,1920
