Modern Microeconomics A. Koutsoyiannis, 1975-11-01      Microeconomics Theory And Applications Ghai & Gupta, 2002      Modern Microeconomics A. Koutsoyiannis, 2003 Providing a thorough exposition of the traditional and the modern micro theory this text concentrates on the models of behaviour of the basic economic units consumers and producers The main emphasis is on oligopoly which is the typical market structure of the modern industrial world

Microeconomics: Theory And Applications D. N. Dwivedi, 2002-09 This book is intended to be a comprehensive and standard textbook for undergraduate students of Microeconomics Apart from providing students with sufficient study material for examination purpose it aims at making them understand economics An effort has been made to explain abstract and complex microeconomic theories in a simple and lucid language without sacrificing analytical sophistication The subject matter has been structured in a systematic manner without leaving gaps for the readers to fill in Though the approach is non mathematical simple algebra has been used to give a concrete view of economic concepts and theories and to show the applicability of economic theories in decision making      MICRO ECONOMICS Dr. D. Rathi, 2021-09-10 Dr D Rathi is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Economics at St Mary s College Autonomous Thoothukudi Tamil Nadu India She has a rich experience of more than thirteen years of fruitful teaching and research with several papers in international journals to her credit She is a member of Association of Economists of Tamil Nadu and Confederation of Indian Industries Thoothukudi Branch Besides she has published three books Her areas of teaching and research interests are Trade Statistics Management and Banking      A History of Modern Greek Economic Thought Michalis Psalidopoulos, 2024-04-16 Tracing the evolution of economic ideas in the context of the economic history and economic policy issues in Greece this book examines the history of modern Greek economic thought from the War of Independence from Ottoman rule in 1821 until the present The book explores how native religious oriented economic thought was secularized and merged with different economic discourses during successive historical periods It traces how the dissemination of French and German economic thought in the 19th century was followed by British and US influences in the 20th century The institutionalization of economics as a discipline in the 1920s and its internationalization after 1971 with their effects on the emergence of modern mainstream and heterodox thought are also discussed Finally reference is made to contemporary Greek economic thought in the frame of European Union economic thinking This book will be of interest to readers in the history of economic thought economic history intellectual history Greek history and modern European history more broadly      Direct Foreign Investment in Yugoslavia Misha Sarkovic, 1986-12-08 Here is a microeconomic model of joint ventures in Yugoslavia between multinational corporations and Yugoslav labor managed enterprises This book focuses on Yugoslavia s unique socio economic system with its labor managed enterprises playing host to direct foreign investment The analysis turns toward multinational corporations as vehicles of direct foreign investment then proceeds to an examination of Yugoslavian joint venture agreements between these two partners of diverging interests      MODERN MICROECONOMICS Anna Koutsoyiannis,1977      Resource Economics G. A. Norton,1984 Demand theory Production theory Price theory Decision Theory Welfare Theory Land Use Resource Depletion Pollution      Quantitative Methods in Maritime Economics John J. Evans,Peter Marlow,1990      New Finance Capital Augusto Luis Alcorta,1990 The thesis develops the concept of New Finance Capital NFC and defines it as system of related industrial commercial and banking capital Affiliates or parts operate in the interest of the whole and as a result obtain systemic gains or synergies unavailable to individual capitals The achievement of monopoly power in individual industries and the strengthening of overall financial capacity of affiliates are both key elements in the New Finance Capital s strategy The research then proceeds to operationalise the NFC into that of financial groups and identifies 27 such groupings in the Peruvian economy These business groupings are mostly controlled by single families and have as members 40% of the largest private domestic firms and all private financial institutions They account for around 13% of GDP Although they invest in all sectors they have a significant share of their capital in the manufacturing industry In addressing the issue of the systemic gains of these groupings the thesis identifies the increase in the capacity of finance a reduction in the capital required to control companies and a saving in the amount of taxes paid as the three most important financial synergies they obtain Member banks and insurance companies are crucial to the achievement of these synergies They allocate a significant proportion of loans to member firms and they are prepared to take considerable risks for affiliates The study shows that financial groups locate some member firms in concentrated and vertically integrated industries which allow for the appropriation of monopoly profits Monopoly profits provide the additional financing required by members to invest and diversify into other sectors One important effect of systemic management of finance and the obtention of monopoly profits is that the financial structure of members has a larger proportion of debt relative to equity than non group firms The thesis concludes with the observation that Peruvian financial groups have not performed the developmental role of similar organisational forms in countries like Japan or Korea Although having the financial knowledge and power to diversify into high technology industries Peruvian groups remain in the less dynamic and traditional sectors Some of the reasons for such impact are then discussed      Delusions of a popular paradigm Eskor Toyo,2001      The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1979      Subject Catalog Library of Congress,      Capital Markets Allan Syril Mlulla,2006      Subject Catalog, 1976 Library of Congress,1976      Subject Catalog, 1979 Library of Congress,1979      Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1978      Industrial Concentration and the Chicago School of Antitrust Analysis Jan B. Rittaler,1989 After roughly 15 years of merger control application in the Federal Republic of Germany a reassessment of the significance of this instrument of antitrust policy seems necessary This is particularly so in view of the reorientation of merger control policy in the United States which has been in its original version the model for the German merger control system Concerning merger control the reorientation is characterized by the notion that the structure conduct performance paradigm which has dominated U S antitrust for a quarter of a century is imprecise or even incorrect and that bigness in business does not necessarily mean badness This makes the fundamental question arise of whether the German merger control system is still up to date in terms of the underlying market theory and of whether the German Act Against Restraints of Competition needs a reorientation towards aspects of market conduct and performance instead of market structure by means of a Fifth Amendment Journal of Rural Economics and Development ,2005
