Literal Questions Ks2:

Learning English Neil Mercer, Joan Swann, Barbara Mayor, 2020-10-28 Learning English focuses on young children's acquisition of spoken and written English in monolingual and bilingual contexts and explores the debates surrounding English in schools and colleges and the often controversial nature of the English curriculum in different parts of the world. English is learned in most parts of the world both through use in the home and community and as a major language of education. Learning English represents just some of this diversity.

Games, Ideas and Activities for Primary Literacy Hazel Glynne, Amanda Snowden, 2013-09-06 A collection of 150 unique games and activities to help support teaching of maths in the primary classroom. Designed with busy teachers in mind, the Classroom Gems series draws together an extensive selection of practical, tried and tested off the shelf ideas, games and activities guaranteed to transform any lesson or classroom in an instant. Easily navigable, allowing you to choose the right activity quickly and easily, these invaluable resources are guaranteed to save you time and are a must-have tool to plan, prepare and deliver first-rate lessons.

Issues in Religious Education Lynne Broadbent, Alan Brown, 2004-11-23 This book is designed to give students and newly qualified teachers a contextual and theoretical background to this subject by exploring and challenging assumptions about the place of religion in education. The book is divided into the following sections: section one sets out the context for religious education in the curriculum; It looks at political, social and religious influences on legislation, particularly in faith schools, and raises questions about assessment; section two focuses on Religious Education in the classroom, exploring our understanding of religion and the concept of development in Religious Education; section three examines Religious Education as a whole school issue, considering its relationship to literacy, citizenship, collective worship and spiritual, ethical and moral development.

Reading Under Control Judith Graham, Alison Kelly, 2015-09-29 Now in an updated third edition, this best-selling textbook introduces primary teachers to the key issues in how to teach reading. The authors celebrate reading as an important, exhilarating part of the curriculum with the potential to transform lives, whilst also giving a balanced handling of contentious issues. Strongly rooted in classroom practice.

The Linguistic Challenge of the Transition to Secondary School Alice Deignan, Duygu Candarli, Florence Oxley, 2022-12-30 This book provides a unique analysis and description of the linguistic challenges faced by school students as they move from primary to secondary school, a major transition which some students struggle with emotionally and academically. The study draws on a bespoke corpus of 2.5 million words of written materials and transcribed classroom recordings provided by the project's partner schools. Combining quantitative and qualitative approaches to the corpus data to explore linguistic variation across school levels, registers and subjects, it describes the procedures of corpus compilation and analysis of written and spoken academic language, showing how modern corpus tools can be applied to this far-reaching social and educational issue. It uncovers differences and similarities between the academic language that school children are exposed to at primary and secondary school, contrasting this against the backdrop of the non academic language that they encounter outside school This book is important reading for advanced students and researchers in corpus linguistics applied linguistics and teacher education It carries implications for policymakers and schools looking to support students at this critical point in their schooling The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license      Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts ,2007-04      Space
