Lives Of The Signers To The Declaration Of Independence 1829:

Lives of the Signers to the Declaration of Independence Charles A. Goodrich, 2025-07-29 Reprint of the original first published in 1836 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Lives of the Signers to the Declaration of Independence Charles Augustus Goodrich, 2018-06-12 The Declaration of Independence is one of the most important documents in American history But why was it created And who were the men willing to risk their lives by adding their signatures to the bottom of it Thomas Jefferson John Hancock Benjamin Franklin and other prominent figures who actively shaped the Declaration are given in depth biographies But Charles Goodrich does not just focus upon the more famous of the fifty signers as he draws evidence from a wide variety of sources to shine light upon even the most obscure of the Declaration's signatories Indeed some of the most fascinating of the lives within this work are those that have more frequently been forgotten Goodrich begins the work with a short history of why the Declaration of Independence came into being It provides an excellent grounding for his biographies of all fifty six signers and lives that they led both before and after they had added their names to this famous document The same intrepidity and genius which had raised them to be leaders of the nation at that crisis carried them forward in the career of glory through a long period of public life we are convinced these biographies will be read with pleasure The North American Review This book is worthy reading for anyone interested in how the United States was founded and for people wishing to learn more about the figures that shaped its history in those early years Charles Augustus Goodrich was an American author and Congregational minister who popularized the motto a place for everything and everything in its place His book Lives of the Signers to the Declaration of Independence was first published in 1829 and he passed away in 1862 Stephen Hopkins William Eaton Foster, 1884
