Mapping Strategic Diversity Dany Jacobs,2009-10-19 In Mapping Strategic Diversity Dany Jacobs extends Henry Mintzberg s work to demonstrate the genuine diversity of strategy approaches used in the real world of strategic management The New Human Capital Strategy Bradley W. Hall,2008 It is often said that the only true source of sustained competitive advantage is people But what does that mean and how can this be measured and managed How many organizations know whether their human capital outperforms their competitors or even whether it improves year over year And what is the strategy for continually improving that performance The New Human Capital Strategy is a roadmap for delivering measurable business results by systematically improving the performance of those in roles most important to customers and shareholders Proposing a radical shift in the way organizations measure and manage their people the book asserts that competitive advantage is a function of four areas of strength Effective executive teams leaders who deliver results outperforming competitors in key positions and workforce performance Using examples research and metrics this essential guide provides readers with a system for ensuring that their people are more valuable this year than the last

Data and Teaching Joseph P. McDonald,Nora M. Isacoff,Dana Karin,2018 Drawing on their research in nine of New York City s most poverty impacted schools the authors dive deep into school systems and routines as well as into teachers practices and students experiences They also zoom out to capture the larger currents that have made this school reform strategy so prominent today Each chapter includes a discussion of a new direction that schools and teachers can take to ensure that data use in teaching actually spurs growth in learning This resource extracts lessons from both chaotic and productive data implementation in order to inform practice and fulfill hopes for better schooling richer teaching and deeper learning A detailed and fascinating account of how distributive leadership collaboration and professional learning can greatly and positively influence teachers effective use of data Randi Weingarten president American Federation of Teachers Data and Teaching offers a rare and subtle blend of generous witnessing discerning analysis and practical directives for educational innovation and improvement Sara Lawrence Lightfoot professor Harvard University Essential reading for anyone committed to improving teaching as either a practical or an intellectual matter James Spillane professor Northwestern University Finally a book on using data to improve schools that goes beyond a theoretical framework and explores what really happens when teachers try to do this work Every school and district should read it Ron Berger EL Education
