QUESTION 1: SOURCE-BASED SECTION

THE COLD WAR IN EUROPE

- Before the end of World War II, the Western European countries and the Soviet Union began to grow suspicious of each other.
- The lack of trust and co-operation between the USA and USSR in particular, led to what is commonly referred to as the Cold War.

What was the Cold War?

- The Cold War was a series of mounting tensions between the two super-powers, each representing differing ideologies.
- On the one hand the USA symbolised a capitalist, democratic system and the USSR or Russia, stood for the principles of communism and a one-party system of government.
- The struggles between the two sides, the East vs the West, was an indirect conflict and usually at considerable risk to global peace.
- At times, the cold war became 'warm' and threatened to develop into full scale, 'hot' war - but one of the two powers always backed down at the last minute and thus the cold war continued for a lengthy period.

Origins of the Cold War

- After World War II, the Allied Powers had several conferences to discuss the future of Germany and the reconstruction of Europe.
- In February 1945, the Yalta Conference was held in the Soviet Union and the following was decided upon by the Big Three (Russia, USA, and Britain):
  - That Germany be divided into four Zones of occupation - Russian, American, British and French.
  - Berlin, the capital of Germany, which was situated in the Russian Zone, be divided into four sections, one for each of the 4 major

We briefly considered preparation of a bibliography of assigned books and articles but concluded that such a list would not substantially improve on existing bibliographical aids. We did however compile a list of films and videos used in these courses see Appendix 1. We were fascinated to find so many of our colleagues extensively using film and videos in teaching and yet we knew of no existing list of film resources for teachers of immigration history.
