Decolonizing and Indigenizing Visions of Educational Leadership Njoki N. Wane, Kimberly L. Todd, Coly Chau, Heather Watts, 2022-11-21 This edited collection centres the reclamation of global counter and Indigenous knowledges epistemologies ontologies axiologies and cosmovisions that have the capacity to create new educational leadership frameworks that chart courses to visions beyond the current oppressive systems of education Educational Leadership as a Culturally-Constructed Practice Jane Wilkinson, Laurette Bristol, 2017-07-20 This edited book collection disrupts received notions of educational leadership culture and diversity as currently portrayed in practice and theory It draws on compelling studies of educational leadership from the global north and south as well as from a range of ethnic religious and gendered perspectives and critical research approaches In so doing the book powerfully challenges contemporary leadership discourses of diversity that reproduce essentialising leadership practices binary divisions and asymmetrical power relations The various chapters contest and move beyond exhortations for leadership in increasingly diverse societies revealing through their rich portraits of the hybridity of leadership practice the shallowness of diversity discourses that are framed as something we the culturally homogenous leader do to heterogenous others The volume is more than critique Instead it offers readers new directions and possibilities through which to understand theorise and practise educational leadership in the twenty first century In portraying leading as a relational practice in contexts of cultural hybridity Blackmore this volume it extends critical theories for and of leadership practice examining the intersectionality between leadership and a range of social categories and challenging notions of leadership as a singular construct Compelling research narratives reveal educational leadership practice as nuanced temporal site specific and prefigured by traditions and cultural understandings that reach beyond a simplification of educational leadership as understood through unitary lenses of race gender or ethnicity This book is essential reading for academics and students of educational leadership and management as well as administrators Resources in Education ,1998 Connections ,2003 Pennsylvania Educational Leadership ,2005

Feminist Perspectives on Contemporary Educational Leadership Kay Fuller, 2021-11-29 This timely book explores how various feminist perspectives fruitfully explain women s experience of educational leadership drawing on a contemporary conceptualisation of fourth wave feminism that is intersectional and inclusive The book asks which and whose feminist theory is used to explain gender and feminism in educational leadership management and administration ELMA the scholar s the research participant s or a combination of the two in the co construction of knowledge from an intersectional feminist perspective It conceptualises intersectional and inclusive feminist perspectives on educational leadership theorising research through a Black British feminist perspective a gender and Islamic perspective and a queer theory perspective depending on the self identification of participants It explores digital feminism and men s pro feminism The book identifies feminist leadership praxis as a focus for future research and explores how leaders can draw on funds of knowledge identity cultural wealth and lead and educate diverse populations of students Highlighting the importance of intersectional feminist perspectives in ELMA the book will appeal to scholars researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of inclusive educational leadership and management gender studies and feminism Educational Leadership and Administration Fenwick W. English,2009 Demystifying Educational Leadership and Administration in the Middle East and North Africa Khalid Arar,Selahattin Turan,Sedat Gümüş,Abdellatif Sellami,Julia Mahfouz,2023-12-01 This volume explores how educational leadership and administration ELA is constructed in the Middle East and North African region MENA and charts the development of ELA as a discipline Against the backdrop of rapid growth and interest in the educational restructuring educational reforms policy and leadership landscape of the region chapters investigate issues concerned with the production and utilization of knowledge in the field and analyse the future of ELA in relation to the educational policies and practices in MENA countries Featuring a broad range of geographically dispersed specialist contributors involved in leadership policy and administration the volume ultimately sheds light on this little researched area of study to demystify common tropes and misunderstandings surrounding ELA in the MENA region This book will be of use to scholars researchers and postgraduate students involved with international and comparative education higher education management and education policy and politics more broadly Educational Leadership Spencer J. Maxcy,1991-09-23 Underlying the controversy surrounding educational reform and the crisis facing American public education today is the question of leadership Who is to exercise it and what direction should it take In his systematic redefinition of educational leadership Spencer J Maxcy develops a democratic participatory model of leadership at all levels Drawing on the work of philosophers from John Dewey and William James to contemporary neo pragmatists he explores the nature of shared leadership and its potential to foster socio cultural reform through schooling Maxcy begins with a review of leadership theory and the ways in which competing theories continue to affect education New directions in research are assessed particularly the shift away from treating educational leadership as a form of management rather than a relational phenomenon In examining the implications of a philosophy of democratic leadership the author takes his inquiry into practical areas including the empowerment of teachers the sharing of leadership among teachers and administrators the preparation of educational leaders for a postmodern era and the development of leadership qualities in children The current trend toward decentralization of schooling is discussed in light of his proposed model together with the demand for moral vision in education and the need for creativity as an integral part of the educational process Making a convincing case for the distribution of leadership among the administration teachers students and the larger community this book will be of interest to anyone concerned with critical issues in education from policy makers and educators to the informed general reader Link ,1987 Educational Leadership University of Alberta. Department of Educational Administration,1992 The Educational Leadership Challenge Joseph Murphy,2002 Part I of the National Society for the Study of Education s 101st yearbook explores the changing context of educational leadership in the twenty first century through the lenses of school improvement social justice and democratic community Authors discuss topics such as leadership roles for teachers principals and superintendents rethinking professional development for school leaders school improvement processes for building instructional capacity and the evolving role of leadership in education over time Ethics in Educational Leadership Programs Lynn G. Beck, Joseph Murphy, 1997

Current Index to Journals in Education, 2002 Leadership Education, 1996 Human Resource Leadership for Effective Schools John T. Seyfarth, 2008 Emphasizing the relationship of school human resource management to positive outcomes for student learning this book is driven by recent research and offers real applications throughout Many Human Resource Management books emphasize only the functions of the area This text emphasizes how human resource decisions affect student achievement It also discusses the impact of human resource decisions in schools with site based management addresses ISLLC standards and shows practical applications for research related to human resource practice

Organizational Behavior in Education Robert G. Owens, 1995 First published in 1970 and most recently revised in 1991 a textbook that explores how the concepts of organizational behavior manifest in educational institutions The new edition replaces outmoded theoretical approaches with current pragmatic ones and acknowledges the ongoing transition from mod

Leadership for Social Justice Catherine Marshall, Maricela Oliva, 2006 This reader on key issues in Social Justice is written by well known experts in the area and edited by the leading authorities in the field The book is divided into 3 distinct parts Re defining Leadership for Social Justice Preparing Social Justice Leaders and Next Steps to mobilize to action as well as to make information accessible and useful This book challenges leaders educators and researchers to be effective advocates for social justice It demonstrates how the current realities in educational leadership training and in school practices re create inequities It provides an array of ways of understanding the effects of exclusionary practices as well as constructive exercises and materials for those who will lead students and staffs to create equitable practices Resources in Education, 1997 Human Resource Management in Education Colin R.
