Literary Criticism An Introduction To Theory And Practice Bressler:

Literary Criticism Charles E. Bressler, 1999 The second edition of Literary Criticism by Charles E Bressler is designed to help readers make conscious informed and intelligent choices concerning literary interpretation By explaining the historical development and theoretical positions of eleven schools of criticism author Charles Bressler reveals the richness of literary texts along with the various interpretative approaches that will lead to a fuller appreciation and understanding of such texts

Literary Criticism Charles E. Bressler, 2007 Presents the eleven basic schools of twentieth century literary theory and criticism in their historical and philosophical contexts Unlike other introductions to literary criticism this text explores the philosophical assumptions of each school of criticism provides a clear methodology for writing essays according to each school s beliefs and tenets and features accessible student generated sample essays Rereading the "Shepherd Discourse" Karoline M. Lewis, 2008 The history of scholarship narrates a complicated past for the interpretation of the Shepherd Discourse in the Fourth Gospel Both the internal and contextual integrity of John 9 39 10 21 have been compromised by a misapplied analogy dividing the passage into a parable and explanation structure and by reading models that favor historical approaches As a result the images and figures encountered in the discourse have not been allowed their full imaginative impact and the tendency is to look outside the Gospel for their referents and explanations The meaning of the Shepherd Discourse lies not in its relation to the rest of the Fourth Gospel but to that which is imported into the narrative Moreover its function as the discourse to chapter 9 and in the whole of the Gospel is overlooked Lewis employs the strategy of rereading borrowed from literary theory to address the internal integrity of the discourse and the relationship of the discourse to the rest of the narrative The literary phenomenon of rereading highlights the interconnectedness of the whole of the discourse and allows all of the imagery to be assessed at a figurative level Rereading also foregrounds the function of John 9 39 10 21 as the discourse to the healing of the blind man in chapter nine and calls attention to the importance of the Shepherd Discourse for the interpretation of the Fourth Gospel especially the often ignored image of Jesus as the door This book suggests that rereading is necessitated by the Gospel itself as a fundamental feature of its unique theological expression
