The Undergraduate's Companion to American Writers and Their Web Sites Larry G. Hinman,2000-12-15 An outstanding research guide for undergraduate students of American literature this best selling book is essential when it comes to researching American authors Bracken and Hinman identify and describe the best and most current sources both in print and online for nearly 300 American writers whose works are included in the most frequently used literary anthologies Students will know exactly what information is available and where to find it Charlotte Perkins Gilman's the Yellow Wall-paper and the History of Its Publication and Reception Julie Bates Dock,2010-11-01 Literature X. J. Kennedy,Dana Gioia,2000 Kennedy and Gioia s Literature Second Compact Edition offers an excellent introduction to the study of fiction poetry and drama Reflecting a balance of canonical works along with contemporary and diverse literature the new edition includes more coverage of writing and more student research papers As in past editions the authors voice invites students on a journey of discovery by sharing their knowledge in an intelligent and down to earth style The Teaching Problems of English Poetry in the English Departments Najat Ismaeel Sayakhan,2014-07-09 Teachers often complain that students find poetry difficult and intimidating Some undergraduate students arrive at university with little or no interest in poetry They confess that they do not know how to read it and therefore cannot understand or appreciate it The distinctive features of poetry create some problems for the learner of English language yet if taught properly poetry can be an effective tool in urging students to learn the language "London" by William Blake. Poem Analysis and Interpretation Simon Essig,2021-06-21 Essay from the year 2020 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 0 University of Tübingen Englisches Seminar course Introduction to Literary Studies language English abstract London is a poem by William Blake published in 1794 in his work Songs of Experience The poet engraver and craftsman was born in 1757 in London where he spent almost his entire life He published his poems engraved in a script embellished with illustrations Blake was known as a non conformist which refers to a religious group that had separated from the Church of England and that was critical to the government The poet and his work are part of the early Romantic period which is characterized by the rejection of the ideals values and beliefs of classicism and neoclassicism such as restraint emotionality or objectivity Instead a freer and more subjective expression of passion pathos and personal feelings was pursued Furthermore Romantic thoughts proceeded social and political reactions against oppression and the stereotypes of Christian thinking The lyrical I in London describes his or her impressions and his individual experience while walking through the streets of the city of London The lyric person as a wanderer perceives on his journey many negative realities Strong and dramatic expressions with destructive connotations were used by Blake to create a melancholic and sorrowful atmosphere of London s streets marks of weakness
