Exploring Widening Access for Mature Age Students David Baker, Lucy Ellis, Nazim Uddin, 2025-09-30 Based on current data descriptive case studies and theoretical perspectives Exploring Widening Access for Mature Age Students considers international techniques and approaches to non traditional and mature students in Further and Higher Education The book provides quantitative and qualitative information regarding contemporary ways of thinking about and institutional responses to widening access for mature students WAMS It gives an up to date assessment of the current climate bringing together international voices to meet the growing and urgent requirement for working age adults to remain employable as occupational competencies evolve and describes and enumerates approaches which are in operation to attract educate and retain students with non traditional entry requirements Focused on the results of an international survey and a qualitative benchmarking exercise undertaken by ten institutions from the Global North and South this volume offers advice and examples for best practice to those working to support wider access to Further and Higher Education for WAMS This book provides current information and support to any education professionals who wish to understand what can be done to meet the challenge of what the future of work will look like Perspectives on Diverse Student Identities in Higher Education

Jaimie Hoffman, Patrick Blessinger, Mandla Makhanya, 2018-12-14 This volume provides educators with a global understanding of the challenges associated with the growing diversity of student identities in higher education and it provides evidence based strategies for addressing the challenges associated with implementing equity and inclusion at different higher education institutions around the world ECEL 2018 17th European Conference on e-Learning Klimis Ntalianis, Antonios Andreatos, Cleo Sgouropoulou, 2018-11-01 The European Conference on e Learning was established 17 years ago It has been held in France Portugal England The Netherlands Greece and Denmark to mention only a few of the countries who have hosted it ECEL is generally attended by participants from more than 40 countries and attracts an interesting combination of academic scholars practitioners and individuals who are engaged in various aspects of e Learning Among other journals the Electronic Journal of e Learning publishes a special edition of the best papers presented at this conference Supporting the Student Journey into Higher Education Wendy Garnham, Nina Walker, 2024-03-08 This book will provide an in depth look at the development functionality and appeal of pre arrival platforms to aid transition into higher education including a range of provisions Ensuring a smooth transition into higher education study is increasingly seen as key to both retention and success both in the initial weeks of study and beyond Pre arrival platforms offer students a range of opportunities which might include the chance to familiarise themselves with the practices and policies of their new institution before teaching begins This book will explore these platforms from three different angles their development use and appeal to diverse audiences in higher education and case studies illustrating their incorporation into practice It will provide a comprehensive overview of not only the different ways in which such platforms add value to the transition process but also the way they embrace diversity and widening participation in higher education from the very beginning of an individual's higher education career. With chapters written by individuals from a variety of roles in higher education, this text will also provide the reader an insight into issues arising from the use of these platforms. It will be essential reading for educational, academic and staff developers working with departments and their institutions to develop their support structure for new students as well as for those directly involved in widening access participation programmes.
