Message about your 2020 tax return

We're holding your refund until we finish reviewing your tax return

We've received your 2020 tax return. We're holding your refund until we finish verifying the accuracy of your return.

We selected your return to verify one or more of the following you may have reported:

- Income from wages, retirement, etc.
- Income tax withholding

What you need to do

Fax your information to 855-851-8440 that supports what you reported on your tax return by June 24, 2021. If you are unable to fax, please mail your information to the return address on this notice. This can include:

- Copies of pay statements or check stubs that indicate the date, gross income received, and withholdings.
- A notice on company letterhead from your employer that indicates your dates of employment, wages paid, and withholding deducted.
- Statement of benefits on retirement income indicating the date issued, gross amount, taxable amount and withholdings.

If we don't hear from you

If you don't provide supporting information by June 24, 2021, we'll disallow all or part of your refund or send you a notice of deficiency, and you may receive a bill for an amount due.

Next Steps

We'll review the information you provide.

If the information you send supports your tax return

We'll accept your return as filed and send you a check for your refund. No further action will be needed on your part.

If the information you send doesn't support your tax return

We'll disallow all or part of your refund or send you a notice of deficiency, and you may receive a bill for an amount due. If you don't agree with our decision, you'll have the right to appeal.

Please allow 60 days from the date you provide the supporting documentation before contacting us, since we won't be able to give you any additional information.
