Press Radio and TV Guide Rachel Eddon, 2003 Press, Radio & TV Guide, Australia, New Zealand, and the Pacific Islands , Press, Radio and TV Guide: Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific Islands , 1992 International TV & Video Guide , 1986 The A to Z of Australian Radio and Television Albert Moran, Chris Keating, 2009-08-04 Australians have become increasingly visible outside of the country as speakers and actors in radio and television their media moguls have frequently bought up foreign companies and people around the world have been able to enjoy such Australian productions as The Flying Doctors Neighbours and Kath and Kim The origins early development and later adaptations of radio and television show how Australia has gone from being a minor and rather parochial player to being a significant part of the international scene The A to Z of Australian Radio and Television provides essential facts and information concerning the Australian radio and television industry This is accomplished through the use of a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on directors producers writers actors television and radio series and television and radio stations Hector Rozzi Bazzani, 2020-04-17 Hector Crawford the name remains synonymous with Australian television The tag line This has been a Crawford Production still resonates with generations of Australians who grew up with his cops the Sullivan family or any of the long line of productions that flowed from his legendary company His public face is part of our collective memory but the man behind it and how his passion and determination changed Australian culture forever is revealed in Hector In this compelling account of his life Rozzi Bazzani recounts vividly how as Crawford's influence grew the off screen politics employed by the TV networks and rivals to diminish his company's power became as exciting as any of his onscreen dramas ROZZI BAZZANI was a successful singer and studio artist for many years before she turned to writing full time In addition to spending years of her life researching Hector and Dorothy Crawford's lives she co wrote the musicals Gershwin The Musical and The King of Corn and hosted countless radio and TV programs Ms Bazzani is a graduate of Melbourne University and lives in the Macedon Ranges in Victoria Winner of the History Publication Award at the 2016 Victorian Community History Awards Shortlisted Ashurst Business Literature prize 2016 Formidable research Tells the rich story of Crawford's before as well as after television arrived Jock Given Media International Australia Sub plots indicate difficulties of Hector's sister and his wives forging careers and wanting to marry and have families in the 1940's 50's Susan Lever literary critic and general editor of the Cambria Australian Literature Series Detailed and thoroughly researched a keyhole into the times Steven Carroll Sydney Morning Herald and The Age Entertaining Tom Gilling The Australian Narrative style for a general readership Don Gibbs RHSV A quite incredible book about the life of radio the TV producer Hector Crawford Melbourne Observer Press, Radio, and TV Guide , 1978 TV Guide , 2006 Exposing Lifestyle Television Gareth Palmer, 2016-04-15 In the last decade lifestyle television has become one of the most dominant television genres with certain shows now global brands with formats exploited by producers all over the world What unites

these programmes is their belief that the human subject has a flexible malleable identity that can be changed within television friendly frameworks In contrast to the talk shows of the eighties and nineties where modest transformation was discussed as an ideal advances in technology combined with changing tastes and demands of viewers have created an appetite for dramatic transformations This volume presents case studies from across the lifestyle genre considering a variety of themes but with a shared understanding of the self as an evolving project driven by enterprise Written by an international team of scholars the collection will appeal to sociologists of culture and consumption as well as to scholars of media studies and media production throughout the world

Pivoting and Producing for Online TV Alexa Scarlata, 2025-05-02 The introduction and diffusion of international subscription video on demand SVOD services in the 2010s represented the most significant disruption of established national broadcast and pay TV ecologies in their long history Using an in depth Australian case study this book narrates this profound period of proliferation It also considers how incumbent commercial networks pay TV providers and public service broadcasters developed into online TV providers albeit in assorted ways In so doing it conceives of the early impact of online TV 2015 2020 more broadly and acknowledges the role of both new and old TV players The industry wide shift towards online TV over this period also impacted existing television drama production cultures SVOD services provided a fruitful avenue for the distribution of existing archives and slowly began to support the production of new Australian content with an increasingly global focus However the formal arrival of online TV certainly did not usher in the boom in original local television drama many anticipated Pivoting and Producing for Online TV Australia s Transition advances the macro analysis of television production strategies This book will be useful to students and researchers interested in media film and cultural studies

Australian Television Alan McKee, 2001 This is the first book to present a history of Australian television in which the programs themselves are the main focus of attention In addition to providing an invaluable and comprehensive archive of information for anybody interested in the history of the medium the book raises important questions about the ways in which we think about television
