Longing For Running Water:

Longing for Running Water Ivone Gebara, 1999-09-01 Gebara's succinct yet moving statement of her principles of ecofeminism shows how intertwined are the tarnished environment around her and the poverty that afflicts her neighbors. From her experiences with the Brazilian poor women's movement she develops a gritty urban ecofeminism and indeed articulates a whole worldview. She shows how the connections between Western thought, patriarchal Christianity and environmental destruction necessitate personal conversion to a new relationship with the earth and with the entire cosmos.

In the Long Run Jim Axelrod, 2025-09-23 It's 2008. Jim Axelrod, once among the most watched correspondents on network news and the first television reporter to broadcast from Saddam International Airport in 2003, is covering the final stages of the race for the Democratic presidential nomination. He's forty-five years old and thirty pounds overweight. He's drinking too much, sleeping too little, and scarcely seeing his family. He's just figured out that the industry that pulled him up the corporate ladder is imploding as he's reaching for its final rungs. Then, out of the blue, Jim discovers his late father's decades-old New York Marathon finish times. At forty-six, Bob Axelrod ran a 3:29:58. With everything else going on in his life, Jim sets himself a defining challenge: Can I beat him? So begins a deeply felt, often hilarious, quixotic effort to run the 2009 New York Marathon. Along the way, Jim confronts his listing marriage, a career upset by the seismic changes going on throughout the television news industry, excruciatingly painful shin splints, and the worst-timed kidney stone possible. Looming over it all is the shadow of a loving father who repeatedly lost his way in life but still has a lesson to impart. This is a book about a dead father's challenge to a son at a crossroads, but more than that, it is about the personal costs paid when ambition and talent are not enough to ensure success. Most fundamentally, though, it is a book about learning what it takes to be happy in your own skin.

Liming of Acidified Surface Waters Lennart Henrikson, Y.W. Brodin, 2012-12-06 Acidification is one of the most serious environmental problems, especially in Sweden, which suffers most from the consequences of acid rain. Besides international negotiations to reduce sulphur emissions, 85% of the acid load on Sweden can be traced to emissions from outside Sweden. The Swedish Government has employed large-scale operative liming activities to counteract acidification of surface waters. The scientific results show that although acidification cannot be solved by liming, the measures taken resulted in substantially improved conditions in around 8,000 Swedish lakes and watercourses, and other countries affected by acidification may also profit from the Swedish experience.

Long Ago Told (Huh-kew Ah-kah) Legends of the Papago Indians Harold Bell Wright, 1929 Presents tales and legends popular among the Tohono O'odham Indians of southern Arizona. In the Long Run We're All Dead Björn Frank, 2023-08-12 A fascinating and entertaining account of the lives of the most important economists of the past. Until the late nineteenth century, economics couldn't be studied at the university level; the field was the domain of well-educated figures whose radical curiosity drew them to a discipline that was little understood and often ridiculed. In the Long Run We're All Dead tells the story of one of those figures in each of its thirteen chapters Each of these extraordinary lives is worthy of fiction and the manner of their deaths oddly often illuminates their work Bj rn Frank shows us how these economists developed the theories for which they became famous and explains those ideas utilitarianism social costs the endowment effect and others with reference to the lives of their creators in an engaging irreverent even comic style Frank also takes daring leaps into speculation considering how the principles of these long gone economists might be applied to problems of today and of the future
