The Reluctant Extension of the Franchise

KIDS VOTING USA

This lesson examines the 1965 Alabama Literacy Test on the U.S. Constitution as an example of devices used to disenfranchise the African-American population. This exercise comprises lesson 4 of the 22 Kids Voting USA high school core activities (see "Kids Voting USA: From Classroom to Dinner Table to the Polls" immediately following this article).

Objective

Students take and score the 68 items of the 1965 Alabama Literacy Test to experience in a small way the frustration and injustice this kind of test produced. (45 minutes)

Provide serious, uninterrupted and monitored test time (25 minutes).

Students will trade papers and score the tests as you read each item with its full correct response (10 minutes).

Predictably, no student will get fewer than 7 items incorrect (= 90%). Say: "You just took the 1965 Alabama Literacy Test to determine whether you were qualified to vote. If you missed more than 7 answers, the registrars would have refused you."

Ask Questions

"You were very upset when you thought this test might harm your grade. How would you feel if it robbed you of your right to vote?"

"Why did Southerners want to keep
