A Guide to Clinical Assessment and Professional Report Writing in Speech-Language Pathology Renee Fabus, 2024-06-01
Learning to assess speech and language disorders and write diagnostic reports may be an overwhelming experience especially when most texts don't cover both topics at once. With that in mind, A Guide to Clinical Assessment and Professional Report Writing in Speech Language Pathology Second Edition combines the latest assessment protocols and diagnostic techniques with vital diagnostic report writing tools into a single definitive guide. Cyndi Stein, Rubin, Renee Fabus, and their contributors recognize that clinical assessment is inextricably linked to report writing and have updated this Second Edition to synthesize the two. Following the introductory chapters which discuss the basics of assessment and report writing, each subsequent chapter focuses on a particular disorder, provides in-depth assessment tools, and presents a corresponding sample report. Key Features: An inventory and explanation of formal and informal assessment measures; A glossary of key vocabulary; Sample case histories with assessment tools; Relevant and useful interview questions; Each disorder's background and characteristics; Assessment parameters; A differential diagnosis section; A model report. The accessible format of A Guide to Clinical Assessment and Professional Report Writing in Speech Language Pathology Second Edition will help students learn how to assess and document speech and language disorders and will also make for a perfect reference for them as clinicians for years to come.

International Perspectives on Writing Curricula and Development Jill Jeffery, Judy M. Parr, 2021-05-27
This book contributes to the innovation of writing education and research globally by providing crucial insights into how the structures and aims of literacy curricula vary internationally. It examines how nine education systems across five continents represent good writing in curricula that shape students' experiences learning to write in school. The book presents curricular analyses aimed at providing insight into how writing development can be better supported through innovative policy and research. The findings regarding international variation are presented under three broad dimensions: social and contextual factors that shape writing curricula; the discourses of writing reflected in curricula and official documents and hallmarks of classroom practice including the relationship with official discourse. Case study chapters present integrated inductive and deductive document analyses, findings of which are compared in a concluding cross-case analysis chapter. Offering a detailed comparative analysis of writing research, International Perspectives on Writing Curricula and Development will be of great interest to academics, researchers, and students in the fields of education, literacy, and curriculum studies. It will also be relevant reading for policymakers and curriculum designers. Chapters 1, 7, 9, 10, and 11 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non-Commercial No Derivatives CC BY-NC-ND 4.0 license.

Education Sector Plans and their Implementation in Developing Countries Roy Carr-Hill, 2023-03-09
This book examines the factors affecting the successful implementation of Education Sector Plans in developing countries. It provides a detailed comparison that draws on data from 27 countries to offer careful research conclusions and policy recommendations Offering a detailed comparison of the schooling situation e.g. availability of potable water and toilets provision for the disabled as well as educational outcomes both test scores and percentages out of school from the 27 countries using empirical evidence the book examines the resources that have been invested in different education sectors investigating the development and success of each plan The volume uses correlation analysis to compare factors including the availability of government funding national characteristics ministerial decisions influences of country and donor stakeholders as well as district and school level issues Thorough comparative analysis of the data is then demonstrated with two measures of achievements to identify which factors can be considered as the most important in order to reach realistic policy and research conclusions Timely and engaging this book will be of great interest to researchers scholars and postgraduate students in the field of education and international development comparative education and international education more broadly
