Some suggestions on how to use this study guide:

- 1) Read and complete the vocabulary, questions, and sketch for each chapter. You may specify the definition needs to be in context of the story. You may want complete sentences for your answers. The sketch is an image that reminds the student of that chapter
- 2) Pre-read the vocabulary and questions so as students read, they can think about their responses.
- 3) Correct the questions together as a class or have students work in groups to complete the questions and review together.
- 4) Use as a guide in literature circles.
- 5) Use for teaching English as a Second Language (ESL classes).
