

LOVE MAPPING EXERCISE

The Love Mapping exercise is a key component of the Gottman Method, designed to enhance emotional intimacy and connection between partners. It involves creating a detailed mental map of each other's lives, including personal histories, dreams, and preferences. This exercise promotes understanding and fosters a strong foundation for the relationship.

Step 1: Set the Stage

- Choose a Comfortable Setting: Find a quiet, comfortable space where you can talk without distractions. This could be at home, during a walk, or in a cozy cafe.
- Allocate Enough Time: Set aside at least 30-60 minutes for this exercise to allow for open conversation and exploration.

Step 2: Explain the Purpose

- Discuss the Importance of Love Maps: Explain that Love Mapping is about deepening your understanding of each other's inner worlds. It helps you stay connected and aware of each other's needs, desires, and experiences.

Step 3: Take Turns Asking Questions

Each partner will take turns answering questions. Begin with one partner asking questions and then switch roles. Try to make the conversation flow naturally, and feel free to ask follow-up questions based on the answers provided.

Step 4: Meaningful Questions to Ask

Here are some meaningful questions to guide your Love Mapping exercise. These questions cover various aspects of life, including personal history, preferences, dreams, and important relationships.

1. Personal History

- What is your earliest memory?
- Who were your childhood heroes, and why?

2. Dreams and Aspirations

- What are your biggest dreams or goals for the future? -
- If you could achieve one thing in your life, what would it be?
- What are some experiences you want to have together as a couple?
- What does success look like to you?
- How do you envision your life in five or ten years?

3. Relationships and Support

The Marriage Clinic John M. Gottman, 2016-12-19 The Marriage Clinic presents a complete marital therapy program based on John Gottman's much heralded research on marital success and failure. Here one will find not only a wide range of succinct and useful assessment procedures but also a highly specific research based and modularized treatment program. In addition, there are dozens of questionnaires and interview protocols to be used in both assessment and intervention. In prospective long term research with over 700 couples, Gottman has discovered certain factors that distinguish happy stable couples from both unstable ultimately divorcing couples and stable but unhappy couples. These findings, which are explained here in understandable nontechnical language, form the basis of his Sound Marital House theory of marriage, which guides the new therapy. This therapy has two goals: changing the marital friendship and teaching couples to regulate conflict. Despite the high aims of much marital therapy, Gottman found that most marital conflicts involve fundamentally unresolvable relationship issues called perpetual problems. He shows how therapists can help spouses move from gridlock to dialogue on these issues. Solvable problems can be resolved more easily when the couple has a strong marital friendship. He gives therapists the tools to teach spouses five fundamental skills to develop and strengthen their friendship: softened start-up, accepting influence, repair, and de-escalation, compromise, and physiological soothing. Gottman compares his clinic to a restaurant where clients are offered a menu of treatment formats from psychoeducation for specific issues to extended therapy to repair a badly damaged marital friendship. Therapists too can choose among the questionnaires and strategies for those that fit the needs of particular couples. Whatever their choice, they will find that their practice is greatly enriched by the scientifically based offerings of The Marriage Clinic.
