Smith, Karin S. Hendricks, 2020-02-03 This volume offers chapters written by some of the most respected narrative and qualitative inquiry writers in the field of music education The authorship and scope are international and the chapters advance the philosophical theoretical and methodological bases of narrative inquiry in music education and the arts The book contains two sections each with a specific aim The first is to continue and expand upon dialogue regarding narrative inquiry in music education emphasizing how narrative involves the art of listening to and hearing others whose voices are often unheard The chapters invite music teachers and scholars to experience and confront music education stories from multiple perspectives and worldviews inviting an international readership to engage in critical dialogue with and about marginalized voices in music The second section focuses on ways in which narrative might be represented beyond the printed page such as with music film photography and performative pieces This section includes philosophical discussions about arts based and aesthetic inquiry as well as examples of such work Questioning the Music Education Paradigm Lee Bartel, 2004-09-15 Twenty three contributors turn a critical lens on the dominant music education paradigm to examine how we teach what we teach for what we teach what is expected of teachers and how we teach them whom we should be teaching and the very assumptions and structures of which we base our practice Cabell's Directory of Publishing Opportunities in Education: J of E through W, Index David W.
