Journal of Global Entrepreneurship Research , Global Entrepreneurship Monitor 2012 Global Report

Roland Xavier, Donna Kelley, Jacqui Kew, Mike Herrington, Arne Vorderwulbecke, 2013-01-17 GEM 2012 Global Report report providing array of data from 69 economies on societal attitudes participation levels of individuals at different stages of the entrepreneurship process and the characteristics of entrepreneurs and their businesses This is the 13th annual report from the Global Entrepreneurship Monitor The Dynamics of Entrepreneurship Maria Minniti, 2011-07-28 Learning about entrepreneurship has major implications for the way we understand economic change and progress At a time when governments all over the world look to entrepreneurship as a way to increase the wealth and well being of their countries The Dynamics of Entrepreneurship examines the causes of differences in entrepreneurial propensity between individuals the factors that explain variations in the type and quantity of entrepreneurship at the aggregate level and the macroeconomic implications of entrepreneurship Using Global Entrepreneurship Monitor GEM data the book brings together contributions from leading scholars to provide a comprehensive overview of current scholarship on entrepreneurial activity Discussed topics include entrepreneurial motivation gender and migration entrepreneurial financing urban entrepreneurship growth oriented entrepreneurship economic growth and regional entrepreneurship policies The book concludes by summarizing its contribution to existing literature with particular attention paid to the policy implications and the ongoing debate on entrepreneurship Global Women's Entrepreneurship Research Karen D. Hughes, Jennifer E. Jennings, 2012-01-01 Global

Women s Entrepreneurship Research responds to recent calls from academic researchers and policy analysts alike to pay greater attention to the diversity and heterogeneity among women entrepreneurs Drawing together studies by 26 researchers affiliated with the DIANA International Research Network this collection contributes to a richer and more robust understanding of the field Part I Diverse Settings introduces research set in a range of contexts from those rarely examined to those representing more familiar terrains Part II Diverse Questions explores new questions and reframes old questions in fresh innovative ways Part III Diverse Approaches features studies with distinct methodological approaches that reflect and extend the rigour and creativity of research in this field Together the research assembled in this volume significantly advances knowledge about women s entrepreneurship around the world While the book s primary audience is academic researchers and graduate students working in the areas of women s entrepreneurship as well as entrepreneurship and family business more generally it will also be of interest to scholars working in related research areas in the sociology of gender work and organizations Policy makers in government and non government agencies as well as profit and not for profit organizations that provide services to or conduct research on women entrepreneurs will also benefit greatly from the insights provided in this unique volume Scholarly Communication and the Publish or Perish Pressures of Academia

Munigal, Achala, 2016-10-17 The promotion and dissemination of knowledge is a crucial part of the academic community This is accomplished through the publication of new research through both traditional and emerging venues Scholarly Communication and the Publish or Perish Pressures of Academia is an authoritative reference source for the latest material on methods and available networks for the publication of contemporary academic research Highlighting innovative writing styles ethical considerations and marketing avenues this book is ideally designed for researchers upper level students scholars professionals and practitioners actively involved in the publication of academic research The Global Entrepreneurship Monitor (GEM) and Its Impact on Entrepreneurship Research Niels S. Bosma, 2013 The Global Entrepreneurship Monitor GEM is a project carried out by a research consortium dedicated to understanding the relationship between entrepreneurship and national economic development Since 1999 GEM reports have been a key source of comparable data across a large variety of countries on attitudes toward entrepreneurship start up and established business activities and aspirations of entrepreneurs for their businesses The growing databases increasingly allow for in depth academic research and this is mirrored by the rapidly increasing amount of GEM based scientific publications in a wider range of academic journals At this point it is appropriate to provide an overview on these publications to summarize their main contributions and to provide some directions for obtaining promising GEM based academic contributions in the future This publication provides a review of 89 GEM based academic publications in SSCI listed journals since 2004 with the objectives to highlight the particular advantages of GEM data their quality and usability as well as their limitations It also recommends a number of ways in which the GEM project might evolve further and make more impact on entrepreneurship research on entrepreneurship policy and practice and ultimately on getting more grip on the complex relation between entrepreneurship and economic development Women and Global Entrepreneurship Maura McAdam, James Cunningham, 2021-04-05 Entrepreneurship in context has been described as the third wave in entrepreneurship research Accordingly specific socio economic political market and institutional contexts are key to fostering enabling and enacting entrepreneurial activity and behaviours These contexts shape everyday entrepreneurship experiences This book is based on the premise that how gender is articulated within the entrepreneurial debate has to acknowledge context However context is not a construct that only applies to those economies and situations that differ from the presumed norm of Western developed nations Adopting a more critical appraisal of how context is positioned within current theorizing around gender and entrepreneurial behaviours offers potential to progress debate whilst acknowledging that competing and contrasting contextual influences require clearer recognition This book therefore has the potential to unearth credible and robust approaches to further examining contextualisation and women entrepreneurship that advances new insights By exploring and examining how contextual influences shape women s entrepreneurship this book challenges the assumption that women entrepreneurship is the same throughout the world It will be of value to researchers academics and students with an interest in entrepreneurship political economy economics and public policy Handbook of Research on Policies and Practices for
