Life Love And A Hijacking My Pan Am Memoir:

Life, Love, and a Hijacking Wendy Sue Knecht, 2015-08-11 Sit back relax and enjoy the read as Wendy Sue regales you with stories about a time when travel was truly glamorous As a flight attendant who flew for the world s most iconic airline Pan Am anything was possible even the improbable It was an enlightening journey and you re sure to have a great laugh and a good cry along the way

The House with Open Doors Yvonne M Wilbraham, 2025-11-27 I was born in a country that exiled my family grew up searching for home across four continents and returned to discover that belonging is not about where you are from It is about understanding where you have been The house with open doors in Jakarta is gone now but I carry it with me the jasmine scent the humid air the feeling of belonging before I understood what it meant to lose it I was five years old when Indonesian independence forced my family into exile one suitcase each my mother saying goodbye to her four sisters both of my parents silent with the trauma of of Japanese POW CAMPS they had never spoken about We spent five years in a Dutch refugee camp where my father saved my legs after I dropped boiling water on them where the cold water seeped into my bones where we learned that survival sometimes means heating water in pots and sharing bathrooms with strangers When Australia rejected us accepting my Dutch father but not his Indonesian family America became our salvation the Presbyterian Church sponsored us to Kadoka South Dakota where I rode horses to school where my mother fell into a puddle of pig mud in her Sunday best and my father accidentally feeding the neighbor s cows We were city folks trying to be country people Indonesians trying to be Dutch trying to be American displaced people searching for solid ground But the real miracle came thirty two years later in Bali when a hotel worker said let me help you find them and through a series of connections so unlikely an attorney in Ambon stood up and said She is my mother in law and suddenly my mother s thirty two years of grief had an ending a reunion with Tante Jule Tante Greta Tante Coba and Tante Jenny that healed something I did not know could be healed This memoir spans four countries four decades and the distance between exile and homecoming It is about driving an Alfa Romeo through Tuscany managing 250 difficult passengers on a 22 day Mediterranean cruise falling in love with a New Zealand cyclist who remembered exactly how long he had waited to call me and learning that displacement does not have to destroy you it can teach you that home is portable that forgiveness is possible even between a Dutch POW survivor and his Japanese neighbor and that the doors we thought closed forever can open again if we are brave enough to keep searching

Escaping Plato's Cave Mort Rosenblum, 2007-10-02 Citing the devastating consequences of media misrepresentation and American ignorance of global issues argues for the necessity of imparting real time information about other parts of the world in order to safeguard political environmental and social interests
