Leontyne Price Carole Boston Weatherford, 2014 An introduction to the life and career of the African American opera singer Leontyne Price, 1961 The 20th Century O-Z Frank N. Magill, 2013-05-13 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who's who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography American Opera Singers and Their Recordings Clyde T. McCants, 2004-08-06 This book focuses on American opera singers and what their recordings say about their artistry It is not a book about all American opera singers since many who had important careers on stage made few if any recordings And many of those who did make recordings did so prior to the introduction of electrical recording in 1925 and the resulting advances in the reproduction of the human voice Opera enthusiasts can only imagine the sound of Farinelli's voice or read what his contemporaries have written about it but with almost any famous or near famous singer of recent years enthusiasts do not have to imagine Their voices are available through the technology of sound recording There are 53 entries one each for 52 singers and a composite entry for a group of Hollywood vocalists Each entry contains biographical information and is followed by a discography of operatic recordings to be used in conjunction with the critical commentaries The entries are in alphabetical order by the singer's last name and provide critical analyses of key recordings and of the artist's gifts and limitations Dictionary of World Biography: The 20th century, O-Z Frank N.
