Las fetes a la cour du roi soleil Marie-Christine Moine,1984      Architectures of Festival in Early Modern Europe J.R. Mulryne,Krista De Jonge,Pieter Martens,R.L.M. Morris,2017-10-25 This fourth volume in the European Festival Studies 1450 1700 series breaks with precedent in stemming from a joint conference Venice 2013 between the Society for European Festivals Research and the PALATIUM project supported by the European Science Foundation The volume draws on up to date research by a Europe wide group of academic scholars and museum and gallery curators to provide a unique intellectually stimulating and beautifully illustrated account of temporary architecture created for festivals of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries together with permanent architecture pressed into service for festival occasions across major European locations including Italian French Austrian Scottish and German Appealing and vigorous in style the essays look towards classical sources while evoking political and practical circumstances and intellectual concerns from re shaping and re conceptualizing early sixteenth century Rome through providing for the well being and political allegiance of Medici era Florentines and exploring the teasing aesthetics of performance at Versailles to accommodating players and spectators in seventeenth century Paris and at royal and ducal events for the Habsburg French and English crowns The volume is unique in its field in the diversity of its topics and the range of its scholarship and fascinating in its account of the intellectual and political life of Early Modern Europe      Court Festivals of the European Renaissance J.R. Mulryne,Elizabeth

Goldring,2017-07-05 Festival culture is an area which has attracted increasing interest in the field of Renaissance studies in recent years In part the outcome of scholars focus on the place of the city in the establishment and dissemination of common culture the attention paid to festivals also arises from the interdisciplinary nature of the topic which reaches across the usual demarcation lines between disciplines such as cultural political and economic history literature and the visual and performing arts The scholars contributing to this volume include representatives from all these disciplines Their essays explore common themes in festival culture across Renaissance Europe including the use of festival in political self fashioning and the construction of a national self image Moreover in their detailed examination of particular types of festival they challenge generalizations and demonstrate the degree to which these events were influenced the personality of the prince the sources of funding for the ceremony and the role of festival managers Usually perceived as binding forces promoting social cohesion festivals held the potential for discord as some of the essays here reveal Examining a wide range of festivals including coronations triumphal entries funerals and courtly spectacles this volume provides a more inclusive understanding than hitherto of festivals and their role in European Renaissance culture      Complot à la cour du Roi Soleil Charlotte Grossetête,2023-04-21      Female Beauty Systems Christine Adams,Tracy Adams,2015-09-04 Female beauty systems everywhere are complex integrating markers of class status power and sexuality to perform the fundamental function of sorting individuals into categories of more or less desirable Heirs to the tradition of courtly love modern western female beauty systems tend to share the norm of man as pursuer woman as pursued having developed around the trope of the madly desiring poet or knight supplicating his aloof and lovely lady for her favor The apparent longevity of the courtly love tradition raises the question of whether the way in which it structures male desire in reaction to female beauty is part of a universal tendency an evolutionary adaptation despite clear evidence that female beauty systems are also in fact socially constructed and reflect enormous ambivalence about the power and performance of beauty Although modern western female beauty systems are routinely demystified and contested today the purveyors of culture that support them institutional intellectual artistic commercial and popular continue as they always have to construe women as objects of male desire Still within this basic structure the systems have varied greatly across time and space with women using beauty as a form of social capital in widely differing ways Moreover as individuals have begun to experience their bodies as malleable and endlessly transformable rather than unruly and unyielding many have begun to experience beauty less as a given and more as a project The nine essays collected here examine a number of different Western female beauty systems over the centuries considering how women have complied with contributed to profited or suffered from and resisted them      Devises héroïques et galantes pour la cour du Roi-Soleil François Clément,Jean-Marc Chatelain,André Jammes,2019      Le Fascinateur ,1923      Intrigues à la cour du Roi-Soleil Darlène Kuyu,2012      La cour de Louis XIV et la cour de Louis XV Imbert de Saint-Amand,1886      Catalogue of the London Library, St. James Square, London London Library,Charles Theodore Hagberg Wright,Christopher James Purnell,1914      Revue des cours et conférences ,1902      Significant Others Zita Eva Rohr,Jonathan W. Spangler,2021-08-30 Significant Others explores the transformative possibilities of alterity or otherness and offers concrete case studies that provide a greater understanding and nuance with regard to aspects of deviance and difference in premodern court cultures Both public and nominally private spaces were subject to the important influence of significant others such as women ethno religious minorities and marginalized and or difficult to categorize men From their positions within and ties to court cultures these diverse outsiders others played crucial roles in maintaining a fluidity essential for the successful sustaining of territorial monarchies and politics challenging our understanding of the more narrowly defined elite behaviours that shaped premodern dynasties rulers societies and cultures of the past By exploring a variety of case studies from history and literature such as Moroccan Jews as dhimmis protected persons to bastards mistresses and sodomites in ancien r gime France to the transformative role of magic in Sir Gawain and the Green Knight

this volume makes use of empirical and contextually informed research to respond to theoretical questions posed by recent historiography With a cross disciplinary approach this collection of essays will be a valuable resource for all students and scholars interested in the diverse aspects and contexts of premodern others      Journal de la cour du Roi Soleil Philippe Courcillon (marquis de Dangeau),2002      Isis ,1928 Brief table of contents of vols I XX in v 21 p 502 618
