La Femme Libre:

The Woman of Ideas in French Art, 1830-1848 Janis Bergman-Carton, 1995-01-01 Women in 19th century French art were represented as victims of a harsh urban working class life This book offers the argument that this representation obscured the model woman of ideas a prominent figure in the narratives of French national and sexual politics

French Feminism in the 19th Century Claire Goldberg Moses, 1984-01-01 Histories of France have erased the feminist presence from nineteenth century political life and the feminist impact from the changes that affected the lives of the French Now French Feminism in the Nineteenth Century completes the history books by restoring this missing and vital chapter of French history The book recounts the turbulent story of nineteenth century French feminism placing it in the context of the general political events that influenced its development It also examines feminist thought and activities using the very words of the women themselves in books newspapers pamphlets memoirs diaries speeches and letters Featured is a wealth of previously unpublished personal letters written by Saint Simonian women These engrossing documents reveal the nuances of changing consciousness and show how it led to an autonomous women s movement Also explored are the relationships between feminist ideology and women s actual status legal social and economic during the century Both bourgeois and working class women are surveyed Beginning with a general survey of feminism in France the book provides historical context and clarifies the later vicissitudes of the condition feminine

Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège, 2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumi_re screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges MZli_s Alice Guy BlachZ and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumi_re brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe R ge identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director s entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual s education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age_Jean Renoir and RenZ Clair_to French New Wave artists such as Fran_ois Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard

Sewing, Fighting and Writing Maria Tamboukou, 2015-11-09 Paris along with New York was one of the main centres of the fashion industry in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries But although New York based garment workers were mobilized early in the twentieth century Paris was the stage of vibrant revolutions and uprisings throughout the nineteenth century As a consequence French women workers were radicalized much earlier creating a unique and unprecedented moment in both labour and feminist history Seamstresses were central figures in the socio political and cultural events of nineteenth and early twentieth century France but their stories and political writings have remained marginalized and obscured Drawing on a wide range of published and unpublished documents from the industrial revolution Sewing Fighting and Writing is a Foucauldian genealogy of the Parisian seamstress Looking at the assemblage of radical practices in work politics and culture it explores the constitution of the self of the seamstress in the era of early industrialization and revolutionary events and considers her contribution to the socio political and cultural formations in modernity
