Even before 1954, when the Supreme Court of the United States of America declared unconstitutional separate educational and recreational facilities, racial unrest and discord had become very nearly a part of the American way of life. But that way of life was very repugnant to most Americans. Since 1954, however, that unrest has resulted in the loss of life, limb, and property, and has cost the taxpayers of this nation tens of billions of dollars. And the end is not yet in sight. With Law Enforcement Agencies in this country continuing to exercise excessive force and murder of its So-called African-American citizenry. The statistics indicate that a violent confrontation is on the horizons. Why in fact given the recent uprisings in St. Louis and Cincinnati, it appears inevitable. This same injustice and violence has raised the tremendously grave question as to whether the races can ever live in peace with each other.

Each passing year and month has brought new intelligence that, despite new laws, programs passed or monies to alleviate the condition of the so-called Minority, the so-called Minority (African-Americans) is still not satisfied. Demonstration, rallies, sit-ins, marching and rioting have become a part of the familiar scene. Federal troops, State Police and National Guard Units have been called out in city after
