L'émigration des Russes blancs après 1917 Znamensky Nicolas,2023 L'émigration des Russes blancs après 1917 Znamensky Nicolas,2023 The Invention of Terrorism in France, 1904-1939 Chris Millington,2023-09-26 The Invention of Terrorism in France 1904 1939 investigates the political and social imaginaries of terrorism in the early twentieth century Chris Millington traces the development of how the French conceived of terrorism from the late nineteenth century notion that terrorism was the deed of the mad anarchist bomber to the fraught political clashes of the 1930s when terrorism came to be understood as a political act perpetrated against French interests by organized international movements Through a close analysis of a series of terrorist incidents and representations thereof in public discourse and the press the book argues that contemporary ideas of terrorism in France as un-French that is contrary to the ideas and values however defined that make up Frenchness emerged in the interwar years and subsequently took root long before the terrorist campaigns of Algerian nationalists during the 1950s and 1960s Millington conceptualizes terrorism not only as the act itself but also as a political and cultural construction of violence composed from a variety of discourses and deployed in particular circumstances by commentators witnesses and perpetrators In doing so he argues that the political and cultural battles inherent to perceptions of terrorism lay bare numerous concerns not least anxieties over immigration antiparliamentarianism representations of gender and the future of European peace Russian Émigrés in the Intellectual and Literary Life of Interwar France Leonid Livak,2010-07-01 In a pioneering exploration of the intellectual and literary exchange between Russian migrants and French intelligentsia in the 1920s and 1930s Leonid Livak provides an impressively comprehensive bibliographic overview of a veritable who's who of Russian intellectuals and literati listing all the material published by Russian migrants or on topics pertaining to them during the period under study Focusing attention on a largely ignored chapter of European cultural history this volume challenges historical assumptions by demonstrating processes of cultural cross fertilization and illuminates the precedents Russians set for political exiles in the twentieth century A remarkable achievement in scholarship Russian migrants in the Intellectual and Literary Life of Inter War France is a valuable resource for admirers and researchers of French and Russian culture and European intellectual history After the Romanovs Helen Rappaport,2022-03-08 From Helen Rappaport the New York Times bestselling author of The Romanov Sisters comes After the Romanovs the story of the Russian aristocrats artists and intellectuals who sought freedom and refuge in the City of Light Paris has always been a city of cultural excellence fine wine and food and the latest fashions But it has also been a place of refuge for those fleeing persecution never more so than before and after the Russian Revolution and the fall of the Romanov dynasty For years Russian aristocrats had enjoyed all that Belle poque Paris had to offer spending lavishly when they visited It was a place of artistic experimentation such as Diaghilev s Ballets Russes But the brutality of the Bolshevik takeover forced Russians of all types to flee their homeland sometimes leaving with only the clothes on their backs Arriving in Paris former princes could be seen driving taxicabs while their wives who could sew worked for the fashion houses their unique Russian style serving as inspiration for designers like Coco Chanel Talented intellectuals artists poets philosophers and writers struggled in exile eking out a living at menial jobs Some like Bunin Chagall and Stravinsky encountered great success in the same Paris that welcomed Americans like Fitzgerald and Hemingway Political activists sought to overthrow the Bolshevik regime from afar while double agents from both sides plotted espionage and assassination Others became trapped in a cycle of poverty and their all consuming homesickness for Russia the homeland they had been forced to abandon This is their story On an Improvement in the Method of Determining Minimum Spark
