Fictions of Affliction Martha Stoddard Holmes, 2004 Tiny Tim Clym Yeobright Long John Silver what underlies nineteenth century British literature's fixation with disability Melodramatic representations of disability pervaded not only novels by Dickens but also doctors' treatises on blindness educators' arguments for special education and even the writing of disabled people themselves Drawing on extensive primary research Martha Stoddard Holmes introduces readers to popular literary and dramatic works that explored culturally risky questions like can disabled men work and should disabled women have babies and makes connections between literary plots and medical social and educational debates of the day The first book of its kind Fictions of Affliction contributes a new emphasis to Victorian literary and cultural studies and offers new readings of works by canonic and becoming canonic writers like Dickens Wilkie Collins and others LES DEUX ORPHELINES
