May June 2013 History Paper 2:

Flight Risk Forrest L. Marion, 2018-10-15 From the 1920s Afghanistan maintained a small air arm that depended heavily upon outside assistance Starting in 2005 the United States led an air advisory campaign to rebuild the Afghan Air Force AAF In 2007 a formal joint combined entity led by a U S Air Force brigadier general began air advisor work with Afghan airmen Between 2007 and 2011 these efforts made modest progress in terms of infrastructures personnel and aircraft accessions and various training courses But by 2010 advisors increasingly viewed AAF command and control C2 as a problem area that required significant improvement if a professional air force was to be built In the spring of 2011 major institutional changes to AAF C2 procedures were being introduced when nine U S air advisors were killed The attack was the worst single incident loss of U S Air Force personnel in a deployed location since 1996 and the worst insider attack since 2001 From the day of that tragic event the cultural chasm between Afghanistan and the West became more apparent This dilemma continues with no end in sight to an air advisory mission of uncertain long term value

A Military History of the New World Disorder, 1989-2022 Jonathan M. House, 2025-05-06 The collapse of the Soviet Union in 1989 freed the world of the political and military perils and imperatives of the Cold War But it also introduced a whole new constellation of risks and challenges as Jonathan M House brings into sharp relief in A Military History of the New World Disorder 1989 2022 the third and final volume in his comprehensive trilogy of military developments around the globe since the Second World War What followed the breaking of the Cold War's grip on global affairs was not so much a new world order as a new world disorder as the United States and its allies suddenly found themselves without the sort of coherent grand strategy previously deployed to contain the Soviet Union Focusing largely but not exclusively on the US House surveys subsequent developments in military strategy and operations the processes by which politicians and military leaders of the major powers designed organized resourced and then employed military forces to conduct or deter conflicts His overview ranges from conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan to American interventions in Panama Somalia former Yugoslavia and Haiti Israel vs Hezbollah in Lebanon and the resurgence of the Russian military in Syria Georgia and Ukraine Throughout House provides a compelling analysis of recent military developments including the strengths and weaknesses of employing precision guided munitions counter insurgency techniques and other controversial methods of current warfare His work reveals the complex relationship between national political decisions to commit armed forces to conflicts and the results on the battlefield and offers a timely perspective on military power and practice in the current day

Design as Future-Making Susan Yelavich, Barbara Adams, 2014-09-25 Design as Future Making brings together leading international designers scholars and critics to address ways in which design is shaping the future The contributors share an understanding of design as a practice that with its focus on innovation and newness is a natural ally of futurity Ultimately the choices made by designers are understood here as choices about the kind of world we want to live in Design as Future Making locates design in a space of creative and critical reflection examining the expanding nature of practice in fields such as biomedicine sustainability digital crafting fashion architecture urbanism and design activism The authors contextualize design and its affects within issues of social justice environmental health political agency education and the right to pleasure and play Collectively they make the case that as an integrated mode of thought and action design is intrinsically social and deeply political Breaking Down the Walls of Segregation David-James Gonzales,2025-12-24 Breaking Down the Walls of Segregation traces the little known history of ethnic Mexican grassroots politics in a pivotal Southern California county that launched the landmark Mendez v Westminster case that outlawed school desegregation based on national origin and recounts its place in the broader long civil rights movement Journal of Borderlands Studies ,2014 The Making of China's Foreign Policy in the 21st century

Suisheng Zhao,2018-02-02 This book is a study of the making of foreign policy of China a rising power in the 21st century It examines three sets of driving forces behind China s foreign policy making One is historical sources including the selective memories and reconstruction of the glorious empire with an ethnocentric world outlook and the century of humiliation at the hands of foreign imperialist powers The second set is domestic institutions and players particularly the proliferation of new party and government institutions and players such as the national security commission foreign policy think tanks media and local governments The third set is Chinese perception of power relations particularly their position in the international system and their position relations with major powers This book consists of articles from the Journal of Contemporary China

At Sea Against the Soviet Fleet Bryan H. Leese,2025-10-14 At Sea Against the Soviet Fleet is a history of the evolution of the United States Navy s Operational Intelligence culture that informs great power competition with China today At Sea Against the Soviet Fleet examines the critical transformation of naval intelligence during a pivotal era marked by the Cold War and the Vietnam conflict Bryan Leese meticulously details how U S Navy operational intelligence evolved to meet the complexities of modern naval warfare particularly in response to the increasing threats posed by the Soviet Navy Structured into four main parts this book begins by examining the Vietnam War and the institutionalization of shipboard operational intelligence or what Navy intelligence calls Opintel The book highlights the establishment of Integrated Operational Intelligence Centers as part of the RA 5C Vigilante program and the innovative strategies that emerged in air combat and targeting Leese goes on to underscore the necessity of Opintel to the U S Navy s close and distant blockade strategy in the 1960s and 1970s He delves into the decentralization of intelligence processes emphasizing the importance of adaptability and the need to prevent surprise attacks This evolution is framed within the transition to the Navy s Ocean Surveillance Information System a decentralized and responsive operational intelligence system The ongoing developments of shipboard intelligence capabilities are explored demonstrating how these advancements empowered naval commanders In the 1970s the organizations evolved as the revolutionary Opintel adaptations of the 1960s that leveraged cooperation without hierarchy became formalized Leese highlights the revolution to evolution process by introducing Opintel support to shipboard tactical decisions to integrate operational intelligence into comprehensive naval strategies Capturing the essence of this transformative period the author discusses the cultural dynamics within the Navy that fostered innovation and interdepartmental collaboration These developments not only contributed to maintaining a strategic edge over the Soviet Union but also laid the groundwork for future naval operations in the digital age Leese s work reveals the intricate interplay between technology strategy and personnel in creating an effective intelligence framework that allows the U S Navy to assert influence at sea setting conditions for sea control in conflict By blending rich archival research with firsthand accounts this book offers a nuanced understanding of how the Navy adapted to an ever changing operational landscape ultimately preserving peace while navigating the complexities of high stakes maritime conflict Final Calendar of Legislative Business and History of Bills, Etc., Introduced, and Index to Same, Members of the Senate and Assembly, and Officers and Standing Committees ... California.
