D. Asher Ghertner, Robert W. Lake

Memo Geo November 2014 Caps:

Unconventional Lawmaking in the Law of the Sea Natalie Klein, 2022-03-07 Unconventional Lawmaking in the Law of the Sea explores the ways that actors operating at the international level develop standards of behaviour to regulate varied maritime activities beyond traditional lawmaking Other than conventions and customary international law there is a plethora of international agreements that influence international conduct This soft law or informal law is now prolific in ocean governance and so it is time to consider its significance for the law of the sea This monograph brings together women law of the sea scholars with expertise in specific areas of the law of the sea as well as international law more generally Informal lawmaking is examined in relation to ocean resources maritime security shipping and navigation and the marine environment In each instance there are reflections on the diverse actors processes and outputs shaping the regulation of the oceans The analyses in this book further consider what this activity means within the rules on the sources formation and interpretation of international law The growing reliance on informal agreements to fill legal gaps provides quick responses to pressing matters We must assess and understand these new forms of cooperation in order to influence existing treaties or customary international law Unconventional Lawmaking in the Law of the Sea surveys the scope of informal lawmaking in the law of the sea and evaluates the significance of this activity for the UN Convention on the Law of the Sea as well as for ocean governance more broadly now and in the future Globalization Development and Social Justice Ann El Khoury, 2015-03-27 Are there existing alternatives to corporate globalization What are the prospects for and commonalities between communities and movements such as Occupy the World Social Forum and alternative economies Globalization Development and Social Justice advances the proposition that another globalization is not only possible but already exists It demonstrates that there are multiple pathways towards development with social justice and argues that enabling propositional agency rather than oppositional agency such as resistance is a more effective alternative to neoliberal globalization El Khoury develops a theory of infraglobalization that emphasizes creative constitution not just contestation of global and local processes The book features case studies and examples of diverse economic practice and innovative emergent political forms from the Global South and North These case studies are located in the informal social economy and community development as well as everyday practices from prefigurative politics to community cooperatives and participatory planning This book makes an important contribution to debates about the prospects for and practices of a transformative grassroots globalization and to critical debates about globalization and development strategies It will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations globalization social movement studies political and economic geography sociology anthropology and development studies Climate Change from the Streets Michael Méndez, 2020-01-07 An urgent and timely story of the contentious politics of incorporating environmental justice into global climate change policy Although the science of climate change is clear policy decisions about how to respond to its effects remain contentious Even when such decisions claim to be guided by objective knowledge they are made and implemented through political institutions and relationships and all the competing interests and power struggles that this implies Michael Mendez tells a timely story of people place and power in the context of climate change and inequality He explores the perspectives and influence low income people of color bring to their advocacy work on climate change In California activist groups have galvanized behind issues such as air pollution poverty alleviation and green jobs to advance equitable climate solutions at the local state and global levels Arguing that environmental protection and improving public health are inextricably linked Mendez contends that we must incorporate local knowledge culture and history into policymaking to fully address the global complexities of climate change and the real threats facing our local communities

Land Fictions D. Asher Ghertner, Robert W.

Lake, 2021-03-15 Land Fictions explores the common storylines narratives and tales of social betterment that justify and enact land as commodity It interrogates global patterns of property formation the dispossessions property markets enact and the popular movements to halt the growing waves of evictions and land grabs This collection brings together original research on urban rural and peri urban India rapidly urbanizing China and Southeast Asia resource expropriation in Africa and Latin America and the neoliberal urban landscapes of North America and Europe Through a variety of perspectives Land Fictions finds resonances between local stories of land s fictional powers and global visions of landed property s imagined power to automatically create value and advance national development Editors D Asher Ghertner and Robert W Lake unpack the dynamics of land commodification across a broad range of political spatial and temporal settings exposing its simultaneously contingent and collective nature The essays advance understanding of the politics of land while also contributing to current debates on the intersections of local and global urban and rural and general and particular Contributors Erik Harms Michael Watts Sai Balakrishnan Brett Christophers David Ferring Sarah Knuth Meghan Morris Benjamin Teresa Mi Shih Michael Levien Michael L Dwyer Heather Whiteside web level 3 59 two plane mirrors are connected at their sides so that they form a 45 deg angle between them a light ray strikes one mirror at an angle of 30 deg to the normal and then reflects off the second mirror calculate the angle of reflection of the light ray off the second mirror reflection from the first mirror is $r_1 = 130^\circ$ web 2 days ago reflection is one of the distinctive properties of light it is the reflection of light which enables us to see anything light reflection occurs when a ray of light meets a smooth polished surface and reflects back the incident light ray is said to be reflected off the surface when it lands on it the beam that rebounds is known as the
