Christian-Muslim Dialogue In Northern Nigeria Thaddeus Byimui Umaru, 2013-08 Religion as a powerful impulse in human existence plays a paradoxical role in society as it both contributes significantly in shaping the spiritual socio political and economic lives of millions of people and also acts as a source of conflict The sad experience of interreligious conflict in Northern Nigeria challenges the claim of Islam and Christianity to be religions of peace However understood as closely intertwined with culture and custom of a people religion can be central in the establishment of peace and conflict resolution in and between communities This text using the model of dialogue Nostra Aetate explores and presents the socio political and theological resources available in Northern Nigeria the locality for a consistent peace building process Report of the Commission of Inquiry Into the Kano State Tenders Board and the Ministries of Agriculture and Natural Resources, Finance, Health and Social Welfare and Education for the Period 1st January 1970 to 29th July 1975 Kano State (Nigeria). Commission of Inquiry into the Kano State Tenders Board and the Ministries of Agriculture and Natural Resources, Finance, Health and Social Welfare, and Education, 1979 Women's Rights and Religious Law Fareda Banda, Lisa Fishbayn Joffe, 2016-02-12 The three Abrahamic faiths have dominated religious conversations for millennia but the relations between state and religion are in a constant state of flux This relationship may be configured in a number of ways Religious norms may be enforced by the state as part of a regime of personal law or conversely religious norms may be formally relegated to the private sphere but can be brought into the legal realm through the private acts of individuals Enhanced recognition of religious tribunals or religious doctrines by civil courts may create a hybrid of these two models One of the major issues in the reconciliation of changing civic ideals with religious tenets is gender equality and this is an ongoing challenge in both domestic and international affairs Examining this conflict within the context of a range of issues including marriage and divorce violence against women and children and women's political participation this collection brings together a discussion of the Abrahamic religions to examine the role of religion in the struggle for women's equality around the world The book encompasses both theory and practical examples of how law can be used to negotiate between claims for gender equality and the right to religion It engages with international and regional human rights norms and also national considerations within countries This book will be of great relevance to scholars and policy makers with an interest in law and religion gender studies and human rights law Ethnic Enterprise in America Ivan Hubert Light, John N. Thandika Mkandawire, Adebayo O. Olukoshi, 1995 No one can fail to be aware of the incredible impact that the IMF and the World Bank have had on Africa Their structural adjustment programmes were deliberately designed to shock African economies into free market reform and ensuing stability But when getting the prices right first swamped the World Bank's African economic plans in the early 1980s few bothered to analyse the politics of a reform package whose immediate impact was violent and unsettling While Africa has come a long way since then the goal of market reform must be as important as the task of understanding the politics of unleashing the forces of the market Not least is the question of democratisation which the Bank itself now attempts to force through with loan conditions This book is the culmination of intense debate by African authors across the continent Three sections make up a comprehensive analysis of adjustment regimes their perspectives and the political context in which they have survived or not Country case studies in both anglophone and francophone Africa round up the analysis      Launching of the Local Government Reform George Innih, 1976      Daily Report, Foreign Radio Broadcasts United States.
