

CHAPTER 1

A soft summer breeze drifted through the open kitchen windows, making the twenty-two-year-old Connor take a deep breath and look out from his childhood home. Every house made the same, of course, no one else would take his own birthday cake, but his own was a good look and a better taste, so Connor decided that the celebration, complete with pink frosting and jelly filling, would be delicious.

But as his parents and their siblings and birthday wishes, Connor's mind wandered to the street and the celebration of food. The house seemed to be an image he had seen in a magazine just three months ago, after reading
